JACOB MIEHLE

FRANK MIEHLE

JACOB MIEHLE, merchant, for several decades a leader in the mercantile marts in Pottsville, and whose name meant much to the early growth of business not only in his beloved city, but throughout all of Schuylkill County, was truly a self made man who left as his monument a name in business that still holds high place among those hardy business pioneers responsible for the rapid and successful growth of the community in which he lived.

Mr. Miehle was born in the hamlet of Tieffenbach, Germany, in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-three, on July sixth, and eighteen years later embarked for America with little or no worldly goods, but with ambition aplenty, and the will to work and win.

Arriving in his beloved America in 1855, he naturally turned to that trade, in which he had served in his early teens in his homeland, cabinet making. Philadelphia was now his adopted city, and he had the good fortune early in his stay to form the acquaintance of Rudolph Blankenburg, the same Rudolph Blankenburg who was later to become Mayor of the City of Philadelphia. This esteemed gentleman who was then a young man, taught Mr. Miehle much that was ever to stand him in good stead in his later life; particularly true was this of civic work and the way of the trade marts, although at this day and date he was still serving as a cabinet maker.

Applying himself to his work at hand, Mr. Miehle soon became an expert craftsman. With the entrance of the civil war his services were utilized as a pistol handle maker, at which work he continued until he was drafted for the war. He was stricken with illness and excused from service. His ailment being such that he could not continue at his cabinet making trade he next turned to gardening and for the next few years continued as such until in 1870 he branched out for himself as a peddler.

Trudging about with his pack on his back soon sapped his strength and he invested his meager savings in a horse and wagon. With this outfit he found the confines of his adopted city too cramped for his field, and soon was making trips out of town. On one of these trips he journeyed as far as Pottsville, which in those days with horse and wagon was a considerable trip.

Shortly after taking this important step on the rung of the ladder that was to play so important a part in his future, Mr. Miehle met at a German society, in Philadelphia, Louise Meier. Not long thereafter, they were married. Their honeymoon consisted of a business trip up to what had now become his beloved Schuylkill County. This trip was enough to convince the honeymooners that this was their promised land, so they decided to make Pottsville their home.

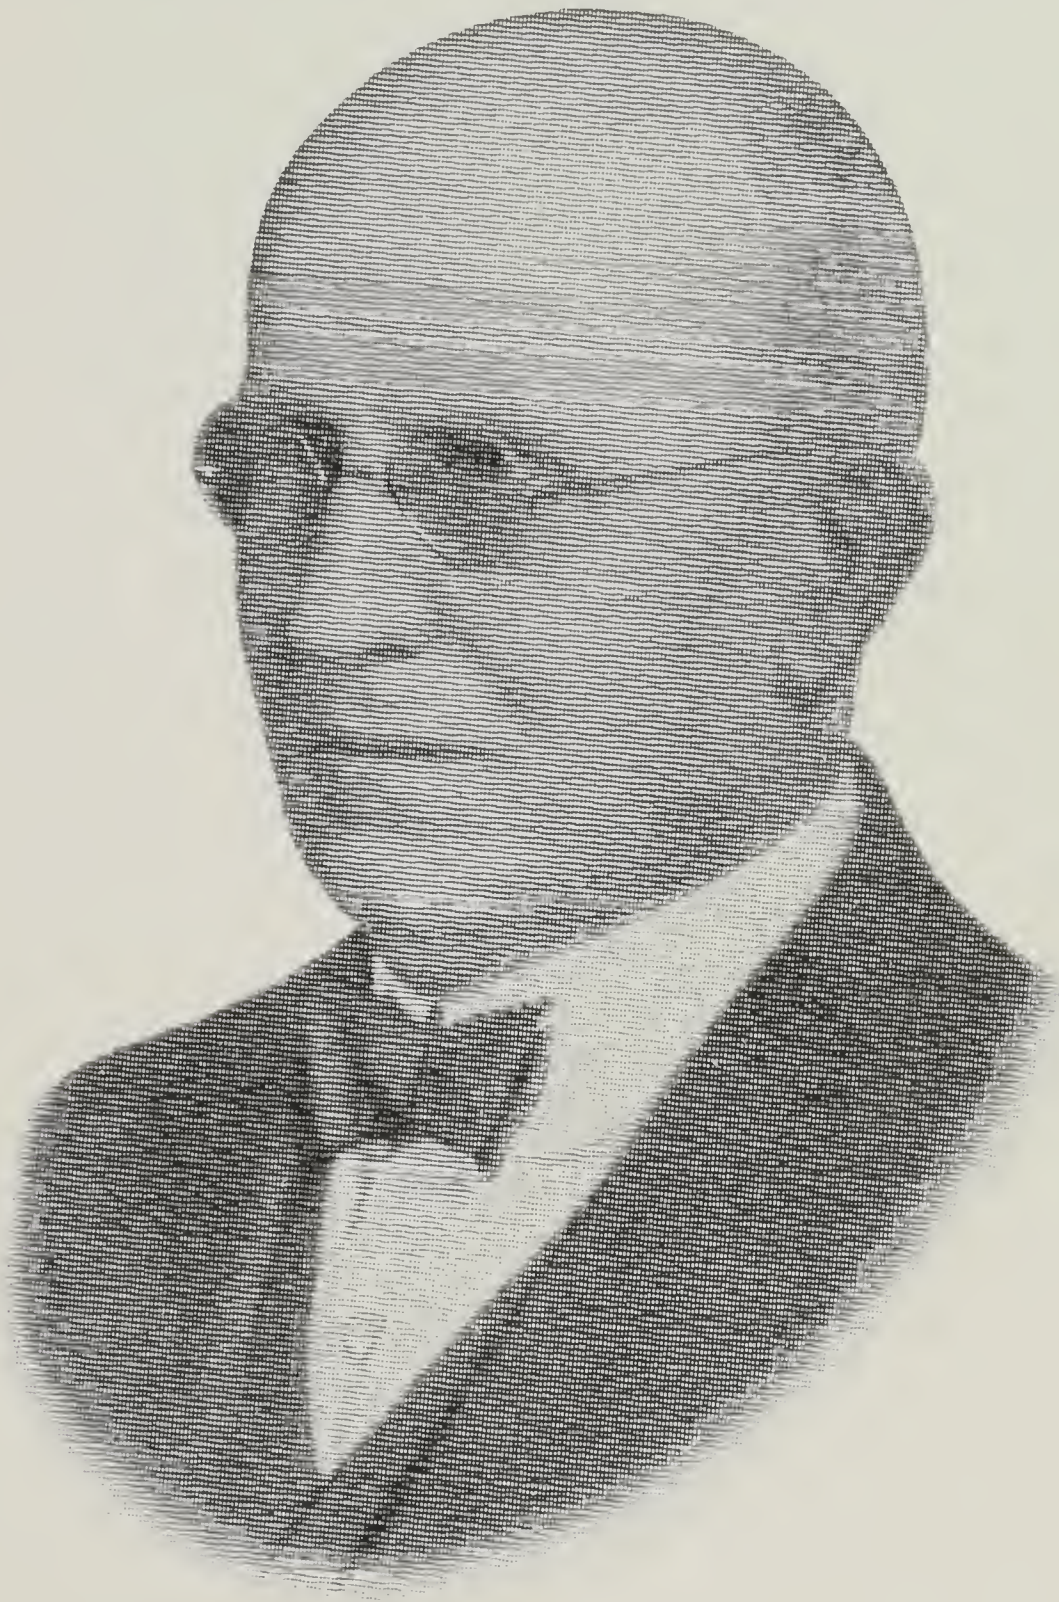

Mrs. Miehle was adept as a fancy needle worker; with this as her forte, and him merchandising, the time was ripe to venture forth in business on a small scale at least. They opened a small store on Market St. where the children were born, and where they remained until the need for more room forced them to locate at 11 North Centre St., where they remained for a decade. Success was now on the wing and Mr. Miehle built and moved into his own building at 5 and 7 North Centre St. After many years, due to his wife's illness, Mr. Miehle retired, remaining in retirement until he was to open at the old stand with his son as partner.

The next move of Miehle and Son was to larger quarters, at 1-3-5 South Centre St., which will be remembered by old residents as the old Market House, above which was located a huge dance hall. Here business was continued until father and son had both died, Mr. Miehle's death occurring February, 1911, the business being wound up by his family in January, 1912. Finis was thus written to a business that proved what possibilities were to be had, where will and determination and honesty of purpose were ever the watchword, here in America for a poor immigrant of our day.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Miehle were George Miehle, Edith Miehle, Frank Miehle, and Mrs. James L. N. Channell (Alma Miehle). George and Frank, now deceased, the latter being associated with his father in business after learning the rudiments of department store ethics from the ground up, starting as a cash boy at $3.00 per week in the department store of A. D. Matthews and Son, Brooklyn, N. Y., and coming direct to his father's business where he remained until his death in 1911, on May 1st.

Miss Edith Miehle resides in the old family residence at 571 East Norwegian St., while Mrs. Channell resides at 1811 Mahantongo St. Her children are James Miehle Channell, attending Dickinson College and Miss Edith Louise Channell, a graduate of Mt. Holyoke College.

THEODORE R DADDOW

THEODORE R. DADDOW, industrialist and banker, truly a native son of Schuylkill County, was born in Saint Clair but has spent these many years in the city of Pottsville, where he resides with his family at 1721 Mahantongo St. Few men here in Pottsville are identified with as many and varied activities, as is Mr. Daddow. He is vice-president and secretary, and also a member of the directorate of the Safe Deposit Bank of Pottsville; he serves as president of the fast growing Liberty Oil Company Incorporated with offices at Second and Mahantongo Sts., Pottsville; a member of the board of directors of the Pottsville Water Company; a member of the Young Men's Christian Association board and of the board of the Children's Home.

Mr. Daddow is the son of Harries L. and Emma S. Johnson Daddow, who at the time of his birth in 1884 were residents of nearby St. Clair, his natal day being October 14th.

Arriving at the school age his parents entered him in the public schools in St. Clair, and after several years he enrolled in the public schools of Pottsville, from whence he took up his studies in Pottsville High School. After his graduation in the local high school, Mr. Daddow enrolled in the far famed Drexel Institute, Philadelphia in course of electrical engineering. After graduating from Drexel, in the class of 1908 he entered the field of electrical engineering here for a brief period. He next returned to St. Clair to manage the Miners Supply Company.

For more than six years Mr. Daddow served as a member of the local school board. He served as secretary of the school board during the construction of the new Pottsville High School, and had much to do with the building of this splendid institution.

Shortly after entering business Mr. Daddow married Jane Stahl Parmley Daddow, their children being Jane Elizabeth Daddow, a graduate of Vassar and who received her M. A. at Brown, and who is now matriculating in Geissen University, near Coblenz, Germany. Theodore R. Daddow, Jr., a graduate of Lehigh University in mechanical engineering, now associated with the Ingersoll-Rand Company, and Esther Lowthain Daddow.

Mr. Daddow is a member of the Methodist Church, being a member of the board of trustees at the First Methodist Church, Pottsville. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity, Blue Lodge and of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and a member of the Pottsville Club. He is an ardent football and tennis enthusiast. His principal hobby is tree planting, having a plantation in the vicinity of Orwigsburg, this county, that has attracted those interested in this field, from far and near.

ELIAS LINER

ELIAS LINER, merchant, long since earned a place high in the esteem of those who have come to know him, here in Pottsville and throughout Schuylkill County, not only in the marts of trade but in the civic and social world as well. His huge establishment, located at 442-444-446 North Centre Street, Pottsville, is one of the finest of its kind not only here in the city of his adoption, but throughout the whole of Schuylkill County. That it has grown to its present position in the world of business hereabout is proof positive of the ability of Mr. Liner as a merchant.

The success attained by Mr. Liner is the result of very close study and constant application, to the slightest detail, as relates to his business and those with whom he does business. In this respect it might be stated that few merchants enjoy the real co-operative spirit as exists in a major degree between him and his customers.

Mr. Liner was born in Czechoslovakia in eighteen hundred and eighty-three, on February twenty-fifth. At the age of eighteen he came to this country and after several years in America, settled in this district and from humble beginnings gradually built what is now one of the finest business establishments in the region.

His parents were Moses and Sarah Weinberger Liner and to them does he attribute whatever success has been his in his every undertaking, always adhering to the high principles laid down to him by his parents from his earliest recollections. Shortly after launching upon his business career, Mr. Liner married Eva Eichenbaum.

To Mr. and Mrs. Liner were born four children. Bernard Liner, twenty-three years old, being the eldest. After graduating from the local schools, he graduated from the University of Pennsylvania, Phila. Bernard, like his father, decided upon business as his career. He is now affiliated with Michael Brothers, in Long Island City, N. Y., assimilating business methods as conducted in a major way by the larger chain stores throughout the country.

Irving Liner, the second oldest of the family, is a student in the far famed Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, where he is matriculating in business engineering. Milton Liner, fifteen years old, is a student at Pottsville High School, and George Liner, the youngest of the family, thirteen years old, attends the Pottsville Public Schools.

The Liner residence is located at 1947 Mahantongo Street, in Pottsville. The family attend the local Synagogue. Aside from his membership in the Pottsville Young Men's Christian Association and the B'nai B'rith, Ezras Achim Lodge and Oheb Zedek Congregation, Mr. Liner is not affiliated with any organization or club, his work and the many charities with which he is associated taking up most of the time not devoted to his family.

Mr. Liner is the chairman here in Schuylkill County for the National Palestine Drive and through his indefatigable efforts much has already been accomplished in this great work. Mr. Liner is truly a builder.

Mr. Liner has been successful in picking out assistants in his business ventures that have proven most valuable, Eugene Eichenbaum, and Nathan Antokolitz, two of his able lieutenants have aided in making this a great establishment, with thousands of friends in this and adjoining counties.

A new addition to the large establishment was the purchase of the immense building directly opposite the old store, which was formerly occupied by the Pottsville Automobile Co., at 455-457-459 North Centre street, where 50,000 square feet of space is now being utilized, as a display room and warehouse of a modern design.

Mr. Liner is also connected with the famous Retail Store Service of Baltimore which numbers a clientele of 250 stores throughout the country, a vast buying organization.

DARIUS DeWEES COLDREN

DARIUS DeWEES COLDREN, manufacturer ladies outerwear knitted goods, is truly one of Schuylkill County's leading manufacturers and businessmen, employing at his huge plant in Schuylkill Haven, at Railroad and Columbia

Sts., one hundred and twenty-five men and women; and with a selling organization of close to five thousand persons, with offices in every state in the United States.

To the vast sales going through the Coldren organization can be attributed the advance from a third class post office, to a first class office in Schuylkill Haven. In one year the values of the product of the Coldren Mill that was sent out through the local post office was more than $900,000. Thus we preface our story as relates the head of the Coldren industry, with an idea of what his plant means not only to his beloved Schuylkill Haven, but to all of Schuylkill County.

No head of any business throughout this county is in as close contact with each and every one of his vast army of workers, as is Darius D. Coldren. He is more than an employer; he is friend and confidant to each and every one in his organization, from top to bottom.

More than half a century ago, Mr. Coldren located his first plant in Schuylkill Haven; for more than fifty years, then, he has been the heart beat of his complete business every moment of the time. It was Mr. Coldren who first introduced the knitting business to Schuylkill County. As a result of his planting the seed in his immediate district, industry has thrived no end, and banks, paper box factories, planing mills, etc., soon opened and have continued to grow with the community.

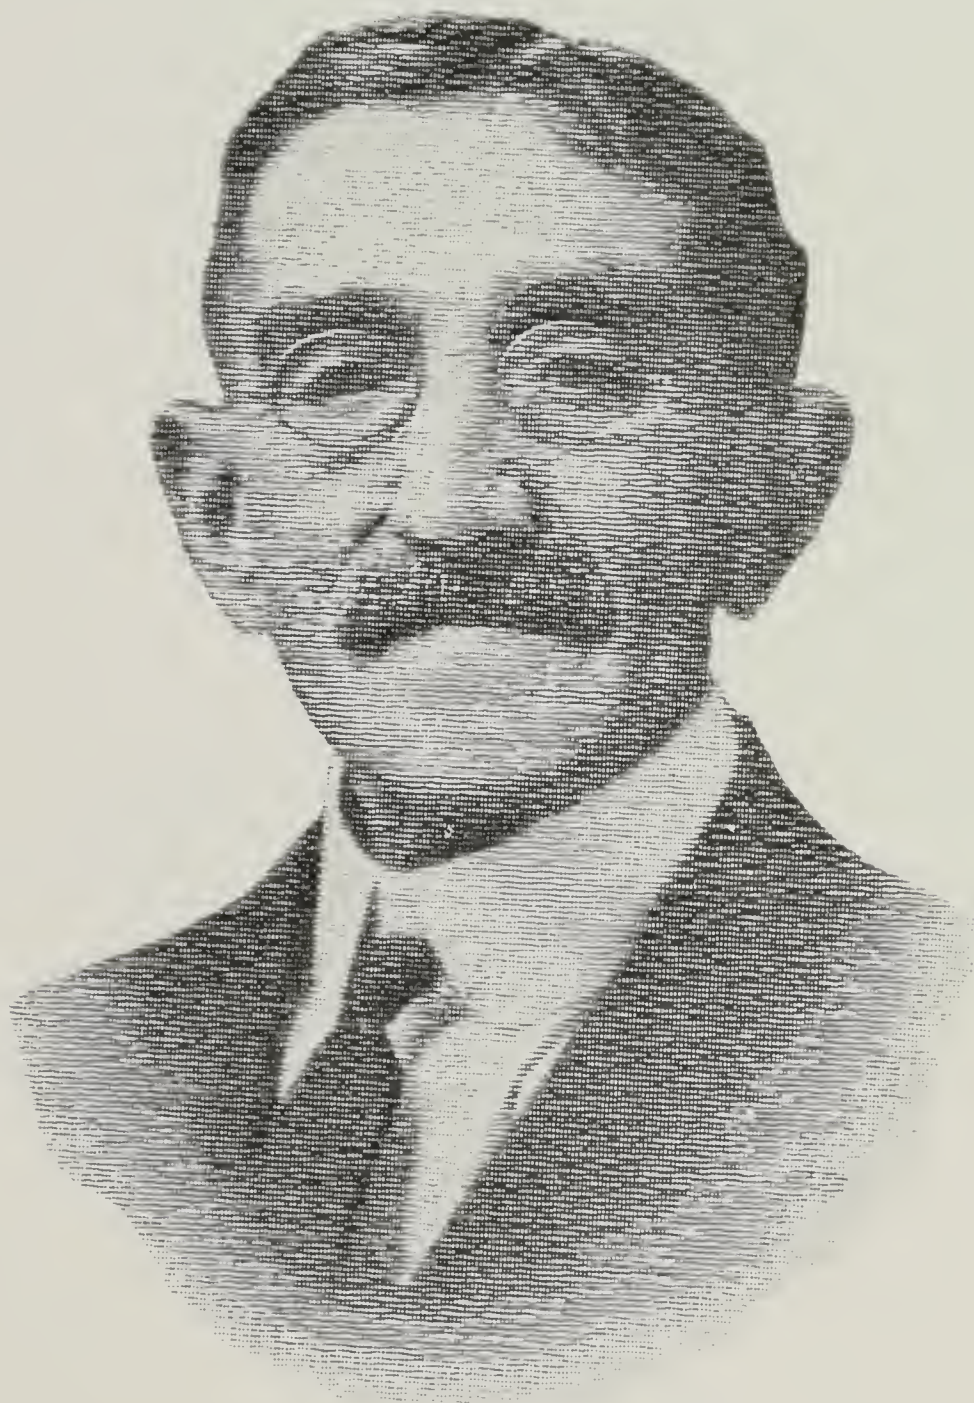

Darius D. Coldren was born in Reading, Pa., in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-three, on June fifteenth. He is the son of Samuel Pennypacker and Elizabeth M. DeWees Coldren, his father being a direct descendant of the old Pennypacker family that has ever been identified with all that Pennsylvania stands for in the way of distinguished families.

Upon his arriving at man's estate. Mr. Coldren married. He took as his wife, Harriett Kerkeslager. To Mr. and Mrs. Coldren were born three daughters, viz: Helen K. Coldren, who married Walter Anderson, now an executive in the Coldren firm, designer and director of publicity; Mary R. Coldren, also associated with her father at the plant as his assistant, and a third daughter, Harriett Coldren, deceased. The wife and mother died during the year 1930.

As well, and favorably known as is the Coldren line, it is not really alone as the outstanding thing with which the average person in the Coldren family of workers and officials is fondest in their admiration and affection. That to which they pay homage is the plant and firm mascot—a most beautiful Russian Wolf Hound, known to everyone within miles of the Coldren mills and whose image adorns the keystone of the beautiful modern Coldren Mills, who answers to the name Czar. So important a figure is this beautiful animal, trade papers have written numerous stories around his life and connection with the Coldren plant and business.

The Coldren residence is one of the show places of Schuylkill Haven, located at 46 St. John's St. Mr. Coldren is a member of the Masonic organization, being a member of the Blue Lodge; a member of Rajah Temple of the Mystic Shrine; a member of the Royal Arcanum. He holds membership in the Wyomissing Club, Reading; Schuylkill County Country Club; the Manufacturer's Association of Pennsylvania, and in the Chamber of Commerce of Harrisburg, Pa. His principal sport he gets from golf and tennis. His one real hobby is his work and his people. He is a Methodist, being a member of First M. E. Church, Schuylkill Haven, which he helped to build. In politics he is a staunch Republican.

GEORGE A SCHIMPF

GEORGE A. SCHIMPF, founder, and until his death head of the large boiler works bearing his name, in Pottsville, truly held high place in the hearts of all persons whose good fortune it was to know him. To him friend was more than a mere word; and no man better exemplified in the full its true meaning.

He enjoyed, in great measure, the friendship of rich and poor; any circle which included George A. Schimpf just had to be a happy one. Were one to travel from Dan to Beersheba they could not encounter such cheerfulness, kindness and a feeling that all was right with the world, than that expressed in the person of Mr. Schimpf.

The life story of George A. Schimpf was beautiful beyond words; whatever hardships had to be encountered, simply made the story on the whole that much more beautiful.

In the town of Baden, Germany, on August thirtieth, eighteen hundred and forty-one George A. Schimpf was born, the son of Matthias and Caroline Schimpf. His parents, noble God fearing people, had little of the world's goods; but ambition was theirs in abundance, and so when the son was scarce thirteen years of age, he arrived in America, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-four.

Landing in America, young Schimpf was taken direct to the very region that in years to come was to mean so very much to him and those near and dear to his heart. Arriving in Schuylkill County, even as a mere boy, he knew his education had so far been neglected and he decided of first and vital importance was at least an elementary basis of things as there were in his new land and certainly it was most important to know how to read and write.

To this end, mere boy that he was, young Schimpf devoted every spare moment he could find when not at work; and slowly he gained confidence and made progress and ever applied himself to his given task, soon mastered his work and in a very few short years, though crowded with happenings for him, he branched out in business for himself. And so was founded the very business that bears his name, and is conducted by his children, to this very day and date, in Pottsville, the George A. Schimpf Boiler Works.

This old established firm has for many years now been an important organization in the business world of Schuylkill County, and has played no little part in the growth of the City of Pottsville.

Soon after getting underway in his work, he decided to take unto himself a wife and so he married Julia Sutermeister. Together Mr. and Mrs. Schimpf embarked on life's journey to find many happy years ahead. To them were born six children, viz: Carrie E. J. Schimpf, I. Albert A. Schimpf, Adolph E. Schimpf, Harold W. Schimpf, Julia Schimpf (Mrs. William F. Boehmer), Helen Schimpf.

He held membership in various fraternal societies, but found most of his time taken up with his membership in the Lotus Glee Club and other musical clubs; music being his hobby, although he was an inveterate reader, particularly as regards historical works. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

George A. Schimpf, besides being a vocalist, was a 'cello player of much ability, and it was pleasing to him to see members of the family follow in his footsteps. His son Harold W. is an accomplished 'cello player, and his daughter Helen, is organist at the Trinity Reformed Church, Pottsville, and for years served the English Lutheran Church, Pottsville, in the same capacity, besides having a studio for musical instruction.

G. HAROLD WATKINS

G. HAROLD WATKINS, Esquire, attorney-at-law is one of the most active and at the same time one of the most successful practitioners in all Schuylkill County.

As county solicitor, to which office he was appointed in January, 1936, he instantly brought into play more activity than this office has been accustomed to, and at the same time drew favorable comments from not only the bench and bar of the county, but from his constituents as well.

A native of Girardville, Schuylkill County, Mr. Watkins was born in nineteen hundred and three, on January second, the son of George H. and Florence Sykes Watkins. His early childhood found him attending the local public schools and then winning many honors in the local high school, after he had advanced in his scholastic work to these higher grades.

After leaving the local schools, Mr. Watkins enrolled at Penn State, from which institution of learning he graduated with his A. B. degree in the class of 1924. With his degree from Penn State won, Mr. Watkins turned to teaching; thus we find him in the years 1924-25 a teacher in nearby Port Royal, Pa. This position, however, was just a step on his way to higher education and while still teaching was admitted to Harvard University.

From 1925 to 1929 he was enrolled at Harvard. He held high place in his class and graduated with honors and receiving his Ll. B., in the class of 1929. Returning to Schuylkill County, Mr. Watkins now made ready for his admission to the local bar and after the usual time after graduation, he began the practice of law in the year 1930.

Since his admission he has been among the most active, even though one of the youngest members of the Schuylkill County Bar and aside from a large private practice, and serving as county solicitor, he is the solicitor for the Borough of Girardville: solicitor of the First National Bank, Frackville, Pa.; solicitor for the Broad Mountain Building and Loan Association, of Frackville, Pa.; and solicitor of the Frackville Building and Loan Association.

Mr. Watkins married Nellie Beneshumas. Mr. and Mrs. Watkins have two children, Carole Watkins and Edmund Watkins. The family resides in Frackville, at Eleven South Second Street while his business offices are located in the Sanner Building, in the same city.

A member of the Masonic fraternity, Mr. Watkins is also a member of the Rajah Shrine, Reading Consistory, and is active as well in the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. He is a member of the Craftsmans Club and active in his local Rotary Club and in all things as they relate to fellow Rotarians.

Mr. Watkins and his family are members of the Reformed Church. His principal sport is tennis, and this, too, can be put down as his hobby, if those who know him did not feel that his law work could be truthfully put down as his hobby as well. Few men get as much pleasure out of their life work as does Mr. Watkins out of his profession.

In politics he is rock ribbed Republican and a tireless worker in all causes of his party in city, state and nation. Although one of the younger men in affairs political here in Schuylkill County, he has made himself felt in party circles, in many instances, and promises to go far should he decide to enter the political arena.

JACOB ULMER

JACOB ULMER, founder of one of the most successful business concerns not only in Pottsville but throughout Schuylkill County, died in Nineteen Hundred and Four, on November Seventh and although more than three decades have since passed the firm he headed continues to be one of the very leaders in its line throughout the country.

Eighty years is a long time in the life of any business, yet the Jacob Ulmer Packing Company plant, located at Front and Railroad streets, Pottsville this year is celebrating its four score years of continuous business; in the life of the business of any such old concern there must have been many times in which those now heading the organization can look back and appreciate just how thoroughly and completely the founder planned for the future.

Mr. Ulmer was truly a self made man; coming to the United States in eighteen hundred and fifty from a little hamlet near Stuttgart, Germany where he was born in eighteen hundred and twenty-six, on November twenty-fourth, the son of John and Agnes Rebman. As a boy he attended the local schools, leaving when fourteen years of age to begin making his way in the world of business.

He was not yet twenty-five years old when he arrived in America. He first settled in Bridgeport, Connecticut, where he remained for two years. He next journeyed to Philadelphia where he found employment in the organization that was engaged to build the first railroad from the Quaker City to the seashore. In 1855 he first came to Schuylkill County opening a tiny meat shop in Pottsville at 207 N. Centre street, and where even to this day the Ulmer name hangs over the door of a thriving market place, having continued over all the years under the direction of a member of the Ulmer family.

In less than a score of years after he opened his neighborhood butcher shop, Jacob Ulmer had grown in business to the extent that he embarked in 1873, in the packing business with a plant located in Jalappa, just beyond the city limits of Pottsville. From an humble beginning has grown the huge packing company which still bears his name, and which continues to be one of Pottsville's leading business houses.

After many years in business, in 1892, he retired and took up his residence in Philadelphia with his wife and daughter Laura Elizabeth, while the business was turned over to other members of the Ulmer family and continues under their management. The direct descendants of Jacob Ulmer who now manage the business are Louis F. Ulmer, his only surviving son; Julian F. Ulmer, Louis N. Ulmer and William B. Ulmer, his grandsons, as well as Mrs. Emil C. Wagner.

When he began to progress in a business way, Mr. Ulmer married Mary Ann Seitz and to them were born five children. John Ulmer who married Charlotte Berner; Jacob Seitz Ulmer, who married Eldora Dyer; William Charlemagne Ulmer, who married Fannie Spohn; Laura Elizabeth Ulmer, who married Emil C. Wagner; Louis F. Ulmer who married Florence E. Beisel.

Mr. Ulmer was a member of the Masonic fraternity; the Independent Order of Odd Fellows; Shriner, being a member of Lu Lu Temple. He numbered among his clubs the Leiderkranz; Turners, of Philadelphia and the Columbia Club, also of Philadelphia. He was a Lutheran, being a member of Trinity Church, where he also served as a trustee. In politics he was a Republican. His principal sport was driving high spirited horses; his hobby can truthfully be said to have been his business.

JAMES J. GALLAGHER

JAMES J. GALLAGHER, Attorney-At-Law, has long since won a place for himself among the many illustrious names that have graced both bench and bar, since the institution of the Courts of Schuylkill County. He resides, and maintains his principal offices in Mahanoy City, Pa., although his practice in recent years has taken him to Harrisburg and Philadelphia frequently.

Mr. Gallagher was born in Mahanoy City, Schuylkill County, the son of John and Mary Reing Gallagher, in eighteen hundred and ninety-five, on August second. He attended the local public school, and graduated from the local High School. He next enrolled at Catholic University, Washington, D. C., where he remained from 1913 through 1917, receiving his A. B. degree in the latter year. From 1920-1923 he was a student at the Law School of the University of Pennsylvania.

During the hectic days of the world war, Mr. Gallagher enlisted June 26, 1917, served with A. E. F. abroad and was discharged March 5, 1919.

Admitted to practice law he soon won friends among his fellow barristers, as well as with the Judiciary. In a few years, he was made an assistant district attorney, under the then District Attorney Charles A. Snyder and served as such from 1927 until 1931. He was the choice of the Democratic party, in Schuylkill County, as their nominee for the office of District Attorney in 1933, and made a very stirring bid for same losing out only after a very hectic campaign.

As a member of the State Committee, of the Democratic party he has proven himself an all important member from Schuylkill County. His ability as a lawyer was recognized by the Attorney General of Pennsylvania when he was made special prosecutor for the Commonwealth in what has become known as the Kelayres massacre, and in which case he so ably fought against great odds to win for the State a conviction that was hailed as superb not only here in Schuylkill County, but throughout the United States.

Again the Attorney General of Pennsylvania paid homage to the ability of James J. Gallagher when the Bruno escape took place by making Mr. Gallagher a special Deputy Attorney General in the investigation that was immediately started, and in the same capacity to serve in the Gilberton explosion arrests. He served as counsel for the taxpayers in the voting machine litigation. He also served with distinction as special counsel in the coal land appeals for the County Commissioners in 1935.

Mr. Gallagher is a member of the Pennsylvania Bar; American Bar; Schuylkill County Bar, and has been admitted to practice before the Federal and the Supreme Courts. He is an active member of the American Legion; the Elks and the Knights of Columbus. He is a member of the Catholic Church. In politics a staunch Democrat. His hobby is travel and his principal sport he derives from shooting. He is a bachelor.

Associated with him in his law practice is his brother, Frank A. Gallagher, Esq., who is a graduate of the Catholic University and Fordham Law School, and who in addition to being a member of the Pennsylvania Bar, is a member of the New York Bar. He is also a member of the various Bar associations in which James J. Gallagher holds membership.

LEON H. MILLER

JAMES H. MILLER

LEANDER F. ZWIEBEL

NEARING the completion of three decades in their chosen field of optometry, here in Pottsville, finds the old established firm of Miller and Miller held in higher esteem than at anytime since first entering the optical business here in 1908, although always leaders in their profession.

The business originally founded by Dr. Leon H. Miller and his cousin, Dr. James H. Miller has continued to grow until today it is held one of the best known, in their field, in the state; and is still under active direction of Dr. Leon H. Miller, in association with his partner, Dr. Leander F. Zwiebel, a member of the firm since 1927. The Miller and Miller building, at 9 South Centre St., was built to meet their growing business in 1917, and still ranks with the best of the many fine buildings here in Pottsville.

Dr. Leon H. Miller was born in East Prussia, the son of Nathan and Anna Rubin Miller, on March 17th, 1880. At age of 14 years he arrived in this country and received his early education in Watertown and Syracuse, New York, schools. After graduating from school, Dr. Miller entered the Syracuse School of Optometry, from which he received his degree and then took post graduate course at the Manhattan Optometrical Institute, New York City. After leaving this world famous institution, Dr. Miller started in business for himself in Malone, N. Y. He then returned to Syracuse, and for a brief period in New York City, to practice, before finally locating here in Pottsville to remain over these many years.

A bachelor, Dr. Miller, resides in the Necho Allen Hotel, although the owner of several properties here, chief of which is the former Crosby Building, at Arch and Centre Sts., which he very recently remodeled and re-named the Leon H. Miller Building. Not being a joiner, Dr. Miller lists very few social or athletic connections, although he is fond of all outdoor sports, but his hobby can truthfully be listed as his work.

Dr. James H. Miller, who died in October, 1934, was in his late fifties. He formed a partnership with his cousin, in 1908, after having started for himself in Courtland, N. Y., after going through the same school as listed above for Dr. Leon H. Miller. During his lifetime, here in Pottsville Dr. James H. Miller enjoyed the friendship and absolute respect of all who were fortunate enough to know him.

Five years after Miller and Miller located here in Pottsville, in 1913, they took on their staff Dr. Leander F. Zwiebel, then a recent graduate of the Philadelphia Optical College, who immediately made an impression, not only on his fellow associates, but with all whom he chanced to serve; that he served faithfully and well is best attested by the fact that he was made a member of the firm in 1927.

Dr. Zwiebel, who resides with his family at 521 Ridge Ave., Pottsville, is the son of Isadore and May Bodefeld; his parents being one of Pottsville's oldest residents, on each side there being direct descendants here for at least a century. Dr. Zwiebel was born in Palo Alto, this county, January 9th, 1894. He attended the local public schools in Palo Alto, and then took up his studies in Optometry in Philadelphia Optical College, where he received his degrees.

Since 1930 he has attended annually a week's Post Graduate Course at Pennsylvania State College of Optometry, Philadelphia, keeping abreast with the newest developments in Optometry.

Dr. Zwiebel married Sarah J. Breininger; their children being Eleanor and Leander Zwiebel, Jr. Dr. Zwiebel is a member of St. Patrick's R. C. Church, and a member of the Knights of Columbus, being Grand Knight of Schuylkill Council No. 431. He is also a Rotarian and an active member of the local Chamber of Commerce. His principal sport is baseball, while his hobby is music.

DANIEL DUFFY

DANIEL DUFFY, one of the most beloved sons of Schuylkill County, held a high place in the hearts of his fellow men not only here at home but throughout the length and breadth of the land. The very personification of kindness, thoughtfulness and helpfulness, he truly lived a life of service to his fellow men, with seldom a thought of self.

Few men ever, in this day and age, adhere to the principals that were Dan Duffy's. He truly loved his fellowman and was ever eager to lend a helping hand or a kind word, where it was needed. To those who knew him adjectives are all too few in giving vent to their high regard for their friend who served so long and faithfully here in Schuylkill County.

The father of Daniel Duffy lived in Rutland, Vermont, before coming to this county, in 1840, to settle in Port Clinton. He was born in Crow Hollow, on July 25, 1853, the son of Martin and Margaret Lacey Duffy.

After several years in school, Daniel Duffy at the age of ten years was working as a slate picker to help the family purse. His education was meager, but by the time he was 16 years old he was a member of the Workingmen's Benevolent Association, and later a member of the executive committee. He soon advanced himself to the general secretaryship of the Miners and Laborers Amalgamated Association for the Anthracite region.

Shortly after reaching man's estate, Mr. Duffy married Letitia Howard, daughter of Thomas H. and Ann Dolan Howard, of St. Clair, in St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, on November 10, 1874. They started their married life as residents of St. Clair and it was while living there that Mr. Duffy was elected a member of the borough council. From this time on he was allied with the Republican party.

Before moving from St. Clair, Mr. Duffy served as president of the Board of Trade, and was an executive of the St. Clair Saving Fund Association. In 1881 he was appointed clerk in the County Commissioners' office. Elected clerk of Schuylkill County Courts in 1887. He was secretary of the Republican County organization for a score of years.

In March, 1892, he was appointed general agent of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company for Schuylkill County, holding same for thirty-three years until his death on July 30th, 1924. His family retain the general agency.

If ever a man was self made, Daniel Duffy could lay claim to that honor, from slate picker at ten years of age to the heights of man's desires at the time of his death at seventy-one years. He reached the zenith, but never lost the common touch.

The places he held during his busy life might be mentioned as follows: President Central Building Asso.; vice-president Schuylkill Trust Co.; vice-president Board of Trustees of the State Hospital, Ashland; treasurer of the Penn Land Co.; trustee of the Pottsville Free Library; member of the City Planning Commission.

He was a member of, and secretary of the Republican Executive Committee and represented his party as delegate at a number of conventions. Elected National President of the Irish Catholic Benevolent Union, August 20th, 1896 and held office until his death; was vice-president of the Federation of Catholic Societies and active in organization of temperance societies of which cause he was an ardent and sincere advocate; a charter member of the Schuylkill Council, 431, Knights of Columbus, Pottsville.

In 1873 he enlisted in Co. K, 7th Regt., Pennsylvania National Guard, and in the late World War he was actively interested in the Patriotic League of Schuylkill County and chairman of the Four Minute Men.

His family, consisting of three sons and three daughters, saw service in their country's cause in the World War. The sons saw service in France, all volunteered. Martin F. Duffy, a leading member of the Schuylkill County Bar, served as secretary with the Knights of Columbus.

John T. Duffy, sergeant; Joseph D. Duffy, sergeant, D Company, 103rd Engineers, 28th Division; Anna T. Duffy, Letitia A. Duffy, Matilda B. Duffy, all engaged in Red Cross activities.

Daniel Duffy was never too busy to keep in touch with his neighbor and fellow man. To serve his community, when called upon; to enjoy every minute of each day he lived. He truly lived to serve.

JOHN J. BERGEN

JOHN J. BERGEN, Investment Banker, with principal offices in New York City at Forty Wall street is a true son of Schuylkill County who has long since won a high place for himself in the world of finance and business both here in the United States and Europe.

The firm of which he is the head, John J. Bergen, Limited, maintain offices, other than in New York City and Jersey City, N. J., in London, Paris, Amsterdam, and Switzerland.

He was born in the City of Pottsville, the son of Thomas D. and Helen Brennan Bergen, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-five, on August seventh, where his parents and brothers and sisters still reside in the old Bergen homestead, on South Centre street. Mr. Bergen received his early education in the parochial school of Saint Patrick's parish from where he graduated, and later enrolled in the University of Pennsylvania, where he took a course in business administration.

In his early twenties he cast his lot in the world of business in and about metropolitan New York where he early found his forte was finance. Excepting for that period devoted to service in the world war, as a Lieutenant, Senior Grade, in the United States Navy, Mr. Bergen has continued his career in finance and business, with headquarters in New York City.

In addition to his position as president of the John J. Bergen organization he is associated with a multiplicity of interests, chief of which are the following, viz: president of the Associate Film Producers; president of the Dowling Productions, Inc.; vice-president of Wright, Bergen and Pistill; and former vice-president of the National Aeronautic Association.

Aside from his varied business connections he has from time to time played a major part in such history making events as the flight of Dick Merrill, to and from Europe in less than a week, during the Coronation of King George VI, in which he was the principal financial backer. Aeronautics is one of the things closest to his heart. He was a passenger on the very first plane to carry sleeping compartments, in that memorable flight from Fort Worth, Texas to Los Angeles; he had made several flights in the ill fated Hindenburg and it is a matter of record that he was one of the original sponsors of America's greatest landing field, the Newark Airport.

Next to aeronautics the world of theatricals claims his attention. As president of the Dowling Productions, Inc., he has been co-producer of many smashing hits in the show world within the last decade and during the year 1937 he brought to America Maurice Evans, noted English actor for a revival of Shakespeare's "Richard II," which proved one of the outstanding hits of the year in the theatre.

Mr. Bergen numbers among his clubs the Wall Street Club; Downtown Athletic Club; Baltusol Golf Club; Deal Golf Club; Atlantic Beach Club; Newark Athletic Club; American Club, London, Eng.; Lex Club, London, Eng.; Ski Club, at St. Moritz.

He is a member of the Catholic faith; in politics he is non-partisan. His hobby, as might well be fancied, is aeronautics; his principal sport is golf.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bergen (Mary Vander Roest) and their two children, Jacquelyn, 13, and John J. Bergen, Jr., 11, reside at the Ritz Towers, New York and in South Orange, New Jersey. The daughter is a student at Briermont, in Switzerland and their son at Le Rosey, in Switzerland.

FRANK D. YUENGLING

FRANK D. YUENGLING, banker, brewer and manufacturer, is truly one of the leaders among the most successful men of affairs not only here in Pottsville and Schuylkill County, but throughout the many places where the far flung Yuengling interests reach. An indefatigable worker himself, his varied interests grow apace wherever he gives of his time and ability. The grandson of the founder of the Yuengling interests in this vicinity, he was born in Pottsville, in 1876, on September 27th, the son of Frederick G. and Minna Dohrman Yuengling. After finishing school in Pottsville, Frank D. Yuengling entered Hill School, Pottstown, where he was a student for three years before entering Phillips Academy, at Andover, Mass. Remaining at Andover for two years, he then matriculated at Princeton University. He is a member of the famed Ivy Club, at Princeton.

While still in his early twenties, his father Frederick Yuengling died, on January 2nd, 1899, and upon his shoulders fell the huge task of taking hold of the vast establishments that had been so ably managed by his beloved father. From this date on Frank D. Yuengling was at the helm of the breweries and varied interests as founded by his grandfather, and to him fell the task of carrying on the tradition of the name he proudly bore.

Shortly thereafter he married Augusta C. Roseberry, and to Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Yuengling were born Augusta R. Yuengling, on Sept. 17th, 1908, now Mrs. Louis N. Ulmer; Frederick G. Yuengling, on September 23rd, 1909, who married Catherine Dreshman; Frank Dohrman Yuengling, Jr., on Dec. 16th, 1913, a student at Lafayette College; and David G. and Richard L. Yuengling, twins, on July 16th, 1915. David taking foreign service, at Georgetown University, while Richard is enrolled at Mercer College, at Princeton.

The eldest son, Frederick G. Yuengling, although a young man in the world of business has already adapted himself to his father's pace and is president of the Yuengling Dairy Products Co.; vice-president of the Yuengling Brewery and a director of the Pennsylvania National Bank.

Frank D. Yuengling besides heading the D. G. Yuengling Brewery, is also treasurer of same; president of the Pennsylvania National Bank, Pottsville; treasurer of the Pottsville Hotel and Realty Co.; president Yuengling Realty Co.; president Pottsville Feed Co.; president Yuengling Securities Corporation, and was one of the originators of the million dollar Necho Allen Hotel project. He was a member Executive Committee Red Cross war fund campaign.

Among the clubs in which Mr. Yuengling holds membership are Racquet Club, Philadelphia; Princeton Club, Philadelphia; Pottsville Club; Pottsville Country Club and Pottsville Motor Club. Among his fraternities are the Masonic, being a Shriner, Rajah Temple and Caldwell Consistory, of Bloomsburg. He also holds membership in the Elks, Leiderkranz and in the Good Intent Hose Company. His sport is baseball, and his principal hobby is most certainly his work. Mr. Yuengling is a member of the Episcopal faith, being a member of Trinity Episcopal Church.

ROLAND CORNELIUS LUTHER

ROLAND CORNELIUS LUTHER, mining engineer, during his life so thoroughly mastered his chosen profession that even to this day and date his work is oftentimes pointed out, in and about Schuylkill County, as the work of a master in engineering. Mr. Luther, who died in 1905, on March sixth, was the son of Peter Diller Luther and Elizabeth Mills Luther. His ancestors settling in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, early in the last century, could trace their ancestry through the American branch of same, direct to the great reformer, Marlin Luther. His father, Peter Luther Diller, settled in Port Carbon, Schuylkill County, Pennsylvania, in 1832, later removing to Ashland, where he died in 1881. At the time of his death he was one of the outstanding coal operators of the region.

Thus, for more than a century the name of Luther has been ever identified with Schuylkill County. On January twentieth, eighteen hundred and forty-six, Roland Cornelius Luther was born. His place of birth is Port Carbon, Schuylkill County.

Reaching school age, his parents entered him in the local public schools and here the foundation for a brilliant career was laid. After finishing his studies in the schools of his home district, Mr. Luther entered to pursue his studies in Polytechnical College, Philadelphia, then one of the outstanding institutions of learning in this country, from which he was later to graduate with honors in engineering.

Immediately after graduation, Mr. Luther, following his natural bent, became a coal operator. After a short while in this field, he joined forces with a railroad to follow further his studies and apply same to construction work, as same related to railway. His next move in the world of business was to join forces with a Mr. Harris, as a mining engineer. He became superintendent of the Kaska William Colliery, and in 1870 he accepted a position with the Philadelphia and Mahanoy Coal Company, as mining engineer.

When the Philadelphia and Mahanoy Company was absorbed by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company, Mr. Luther continued with them in the same capacity, until June, 1874, when the company sent him to Cold Spring, opposite West Point, to take charge of their holdings there. He remained in that position but a little while and in 1875 resigned.

Going next to the Pacific Coast, he shortly after joined forces with an Eureka gold mining project for a New York company, in Nevada; returning to Pottsville in 1882, to become general superintendent and later vice-president of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company forces. With his rare knowledge of both theoretical and practical engineering and his undoubted executive ability, he soon rose to the zenith of his career with this vast organization.

Mr. Luther early in his brilliant career married Theresa Yuengling. To Mr. and Mrs. Roland C. Luther were born two sons, Roland Yuengling Luther and Edwin Cornelius Luther; the former who married Grace Lewis and the latter married Anna Henning. Mrs. Roland Cornelius Luther still resides in the old homestead at 508 Mahantongo Street, Pottsville, within not many squares from where she has spent her entire life.

He was a member and vestryman of the Episcopal Church. His clubs were the Pottsville Club and the Union League, Philadelphia. He was a member of the directorate of the Safe Deposit Bank, Pottsville.

EDWIN CORNELIUS LUTHER

EDWIN CORNELIUS LUTHER, consulting mining engineer, truly earned for himself the high place that was his in the great field of engineering, and in no less a degree than that held by him in circles financial, not only here in Schuylkill County, but wherever his talents were sought.

The rare talents that were his in mining engineering were a gift inherited from his beloved father; developed by close attention to every phase of his profession. It is given to few men to write such a glorious record, in so few years, as that left by Mr. Luther. Few sons of Pottsville have succeeded in obtaining so high a place of prominence.

Though he was of a quiet, retiring disposition, the knowledge he possessed was found to be remarkable in any function to which he offered his service. As best evidence of this fact was his handling, during the hectic days of readjustment, the presidency of the Safe Deposit Bank, of Pottsville; combined with his masterful handling of his interests in the bituminous coal fields.

Mr. Luther was the son of Roland C. and Theresa Yuengling Luther. He was born in Pottsville, in 1878, on November 30th. His early education was acquired in his home city, continuing until after his second year in high school, from where he entered Hill School, Pottstown. He was graduated from Hill School with the class of '98. Entering Princeton next, he graduated in '02, in civil engineering, after which he took a course in mining engineering in the Columbia School of Mines, where he received his degrees in 1904. He next matriculated in the famous Colorado School of Mines for a year's study.

Launching into the business world for the first time, Mr. Luther became associated with the local office of the Phila. and Reading C. and I. Co. He resigned to associate himself with the Sheaffer Estate, where he was to remain until he opened his own office, in Pottsville, as consulting engineer.

From this point on, Mr. Luther, ever a tireless worker, found all too few hours in his working day; though it proved a detriment to his health.

During his lifetime he was found in the forefront of civic and religious affairs, being a pioneer in the organization of the million dollar Necho Allen Hotel.

Mr. Luther was president of the Peerless Coal and Coke Co., of West Virginia, and of the Powhatan Coal and Coke Co., in the same state; he was president of the Safe Deposit Bank, Pottsville; president Pottsville Community Hotel Corporation; president Schuylkill Country Club; served as vice-president of the Pottsville Water Company, and secretary Pottsville Library Board. He was on the directorate of the People's Railway; and on the board of the Central United Coal Co., of Chicago, and of the Crozer Pocahontas Company.

He listed among his clubs the following, viz: Union League, Phila.; Princeton, New York; Tiger Inn, Princeton; Seignior Club, Quebec; Pottsville Club; and the Schuylkill Country Club. Like all successful men he found time for hobby and play and enjoyed golf, traveling, hunting, fishing, historical reading and delving into his own method of moving pictures. His technical library was second to none. He was a member also of the American Institute Mining Engineers and of the Geographical Society.

With his family and home always first in his heart, Mr. Luther enjoyed to the full his life. His wife, whom he married on April 17th, 1912, was Anna Atkins Henning Luther, daughter of Judge and Mrs. D. C. Henning and granddaughter of Charles M. Atkins, the children being Roland Cornelius Luther, Edwin Cornelius Luther and Isabel T. Luther. The family residence is at 1530 Mahantongo St., Pottsville.

Mr. Luther was an Episcopalean; attending Trinity Church where he served as Vestryman, and also Rector's Warden. He was a member of the Masonic organization, being a 32nd degree member. His death, at Palmerton Hospital, August 8th, 1935, brought to a close, a life full to the brim of all of the finer things to be had on earth.

OWEN L. UNDERWOOD, merchant and civic leader, stands among the leaders of those in the mercantile world hereabout, who have been responsible for the success that has come to the trade marts of the city of Pottsville, within the last decade.

Doutrich's is truly a Pottsville institution, and as the president and general manager of this famous store Mr. Underwood has long since won a place for himself not only with those in his employ, but with their thousands of clients here in Pottsville and throughout Schuylkill County, and his fellow business associates in the many avenues of business with which he has dealings and contact.

It is just as true today, as ever, that any business is only as big as the men behind it; and with such an organization as Mr. Underwood has built, one can easily understand the continued success of Doutrichs, whose modern building is located at 12 and 14 North Centre St.

Mr. Underwood was born in Unionville, Centre County, this state, on April sixteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine the son of Reuben L. and Emmeline Griest Underwood. After attending and graduating from the public schools in York Springs, Adams County, he entered the Cumberland Valley State Teachers College, at Shippensburg, Pa., from which institution he was graduated with honors.

After leaving college, Mr. Underwood spent several years as supervising principal of schools at New Hope, Bucks County, Pa., and eventually arrived in Pottsville, where his business accomplishments are of such recent moment that they hardly need further comment.

His family consist of his wife, Fannie Doutrich Underwood and their two daughters, Mrs. Marian Underwood Sallada and Mrs. Mildred Underwood McHenry. Mr. and Mrs. Underwood reside in Pottsville at 609 Mahantongo St.

Like most successful businessmen he finds time to mingle with his fellowman, and numbers among his fraternal organizations the Masons, being a member of the Blue Lodge; a member of the Mystic Shrine, Rajah Temple; Patriotic Order Sons of America; and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Mr. Underwood was a founder, and the first president of the Pottsville Rotary Club, and has ever been one of its most active and prominent members. He holds membership in the Pottsville Club, Schuylkill County Country Club and in the Sphinx Club.

In circles sporting he is fond of most outdoor sports, but his preference runs mostly to football; his hobby, aside from the interests he finds in civic projects, is truly his work, as can be attested to by those who have the pleasure of knowing him.

Mr. Underwood, with his family, are members of the Presbyterian faith, attending the Second Presbyterian Church, Pottsville.

HENRY LEWIS MILLER

HENRY LEWIS MILLER, manufacturer and civic leader, for close to two score years was closely identified with the industrial life of Schuylkill County, particularly as it related to Port Carbon, where his huge mill is located, and where, even after his death, his influence in civic affairs is ever present. He died February 16, 1936.

In association with his son, John Jacob Miller, he conducted the H. L. Miller & Son plant, manufacturers of Knitted Underwear, on South Coal Street, Port Carbon, where an average of 100 women are employed. He started business in 1900, as Superior Knitting Mill, incorporated in 1914, when the son was admitted to the firm; and since 1935 has been under his sole ownership.

The parents of Henry Lewis Miller, John Frederick Miller and Sophia Dietrick Miller, came to America from Wurtemberg, Germany, and immediately settled in West Brunswick Township, near Orwigsburg, where their son was born in 1862, on May 28.

As a young man, Henry Lewis Miller was identified with his church, St. Paul's Lutheran, in Orwigsburg, as a church counsellor and in the same field of endeavor was the young woman whom he was to make his wife, Ida Amanda Honsberger. Mr. and Mrs. Miller were blessed with a son and daughter. They decided to try their fortunes in new fields, so they settled in Port Carbon.

The family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their daughter, Lottie Irene Miller and their son, John Jacob Miller, taking up their residence in Port Carbon, immediately became interested in all that tended to the betterment of the community. The daughter, Lottie, is now married, being Mrs. Harry B. Schwartz, of Schuylkill Haven, while John Jacob Miller, the son, married Kathryn Sybilla Medlar of Pottsville, in Phila. in 1916. They have one son, John Lewis Miller, who is attending Mercersburg Academy.

Henry Lewis Miller, in his younger days, was much interested in hunting and fishing, but during his later years made his main hobby, his interest in his work serve as his sport, too. He was a member of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association; also a member of St.

Paul's Lutheran Church, Port Carbon. His widow resides in the old family homestead on South Coal Street, Port Carbon, and carries on many charitable activities.

All of the father's business activities are carried on by John Jacob Miller, his son, who has been sole owner since 1935. Father and son organized, in the main, the Port Carbon State Bank, in 1923. The son as president; the father, as a member of the board of directors.

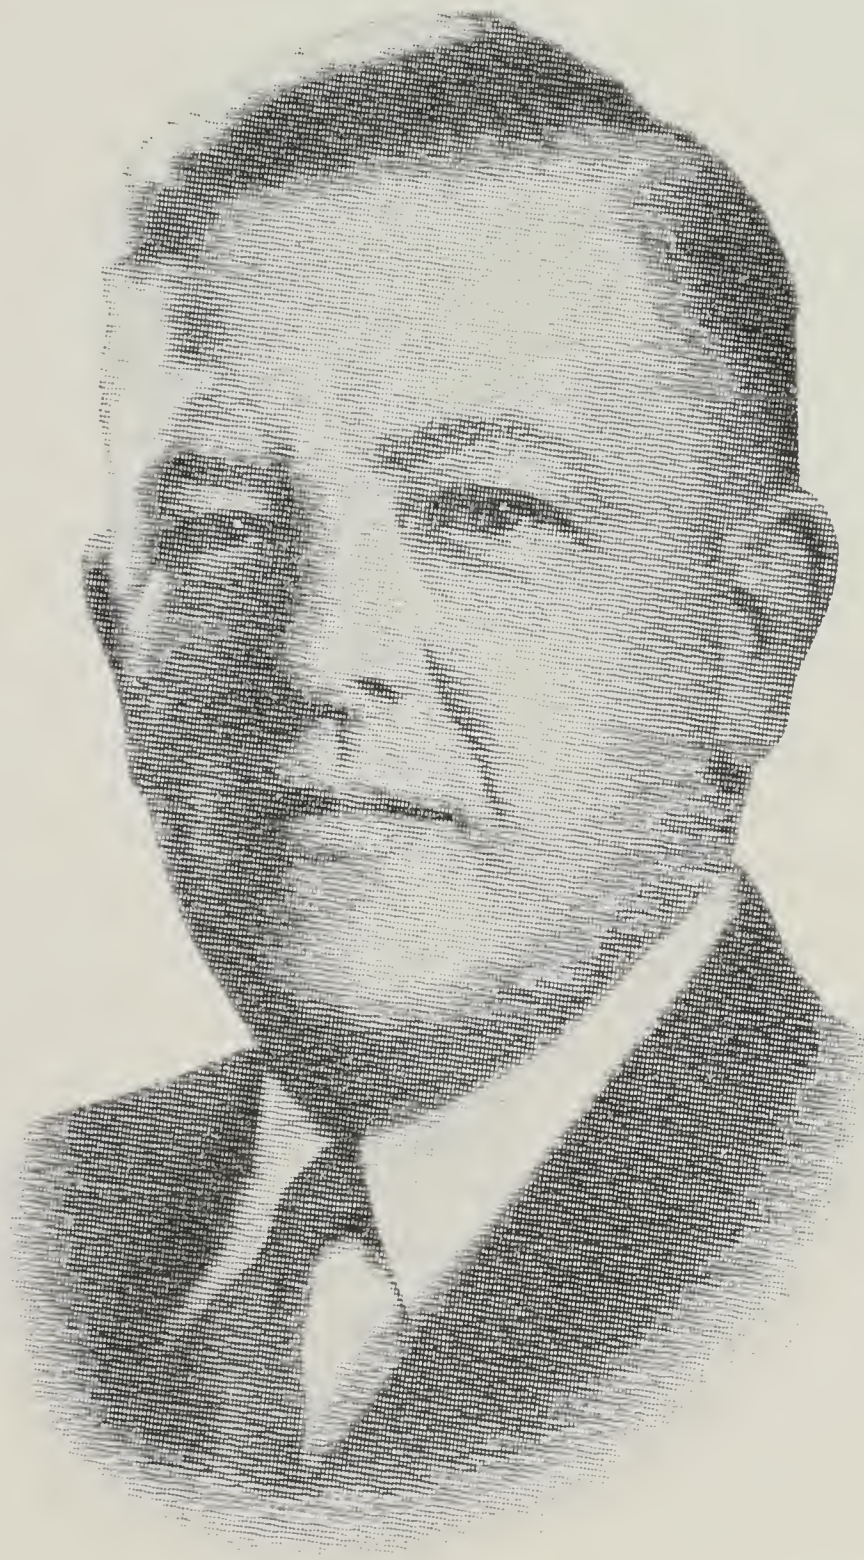

In 1930, economic conditions presented such a condition that to protect their depositors, all the bank's assets were assigned to the Miners National Bank of Pottsville, for liquidation, with the resultant aftermath that each and every depositor was paid dollar for dollar.

John Jacob Miller resides with his family at 34 Jackson Street, Port Carbon, and has his summer home on a 27-acre farm at East Brunswick Township.

He attended public schools in Orwigsburg and Port Carbon, after which he matriculated at Pierce Business College, Philadelphia, and received his degree in 1909.

After graduating from college, Mr. Miller became a cost accountant in Eastern Steel Mills. Later he entered the automobile business in partnership with Theodore Leiningner as the Pottsville Automobile Co. In 1914 he entered into partnership with his father in the knitting business.

Mr. Miller is a charter member of the Pottsville Kiwanis, and is a member of the Elks. Football, baseball and horseback riding afford him his principal interest in sports. He and his family are members of St. Paul Lutheran Church, Port Carbon, where Mr. Miller serves on the church council and church treasurer,

MARTIN M. BURKE

MARTIN M. BURKE, ESQUIRE, attorney-at-law, senior member of the legal firm of Burke and Burke, of Shenandoah, Schuylkill County, is one of the outstanding members of the local Bar. Bench and Bar alike hold him in high respect. He serves as Chancellor of the Bar.

The legal firm of which Mr. Burke is the head has its headquarters in Shenandoah, in the Egan Building, Main and Centre Streets, Aside from his large private practice, Mr. Burke has an extensive practice among many of the larger corporations functioning in this vicinity. Such firms whom he represents might be mentioned the Reading Railway Company; Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company; Lehigh Valley Coal Company; Madeira-Hill Company and the Dodson Coal Company.

Notwithstanding his many activities and the pressing demands on his time in law, Mr. Burke is never too busy to lend an ear, and a helpful word to the younger members of the bar who seek his advice on matters pertaining to his beloved profession; nor is he ever too busy to lend his best efforts to any and all civic projects which might solicit his co-operation and support.

His early education was obtained in the public schools of West Mahanoy Township, this county. After leaving school, Mr. Burke turned to law and entered the offices of M. M. L'Velle and John A. Nash, where he pursued his law studies until being admitted to the local bar. An indefatigable worker, he rose rapidly in the profession.

Mr. Burke was born in Ashland, in eighteen hundred and sixty-five, the son of Edward J. and Margaret E. L'Velle Burke. His early childhood was spent in the vicinity of Ashland and after reaching man's estate and taking unto himself a wife, he located and has ever remained in Shenandoah. He married Mary E. Foley. Mr. and Mrs. Burke have a son, Clarence L. Burke, who is associated with his father in his law offices in Shenandoah.

The family reside in Shenandoah at 216 North Main Street. Mr. Burke is a member of the American Bar Association and is also a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association. He is a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, the Benevolent, Protective Order of Elks, and the Phoenix Fire Company. Hunting and fishing were ever his principal sports, although baseball is close to his heart. His hobby, it hardly need be stated, is his law books and work. Mr. Burke and his family are communicants of the Roman Catholic Church, being members of the Church of the Annunciation B. V. M., in Shenandoah.

CHARLES W. STAUDENMEIER

CHARLES W. STAUDENMEIER, Attorney-at-law and former State Senator from Schuylkill County, holds high place not only in his profession but is recognized as an outstanding leader in Republican circles throughout the state.

A native Schuylkill Countian, Mr. Staudenmeier was born in Ashland, the son of Joseph and Margaret Lutz Staudenmeier, on November 4th, 1894. He attended the local parochial school and the Ashland High School after which he enrolled at Villanova College in 1912 and 1913. He studied law at Dickinson College and was a graduate in the class of 1916 when he received his L. LB.

Not long after being admitted to practice law by the local courts, America entered the world war, and he was among the very first to enter the service of his country, enlisting in the aviation corps remaining in the service until after the armistice, at which time he was a member of the Fourth Infantry, in training at Camp Lee, Virginia.

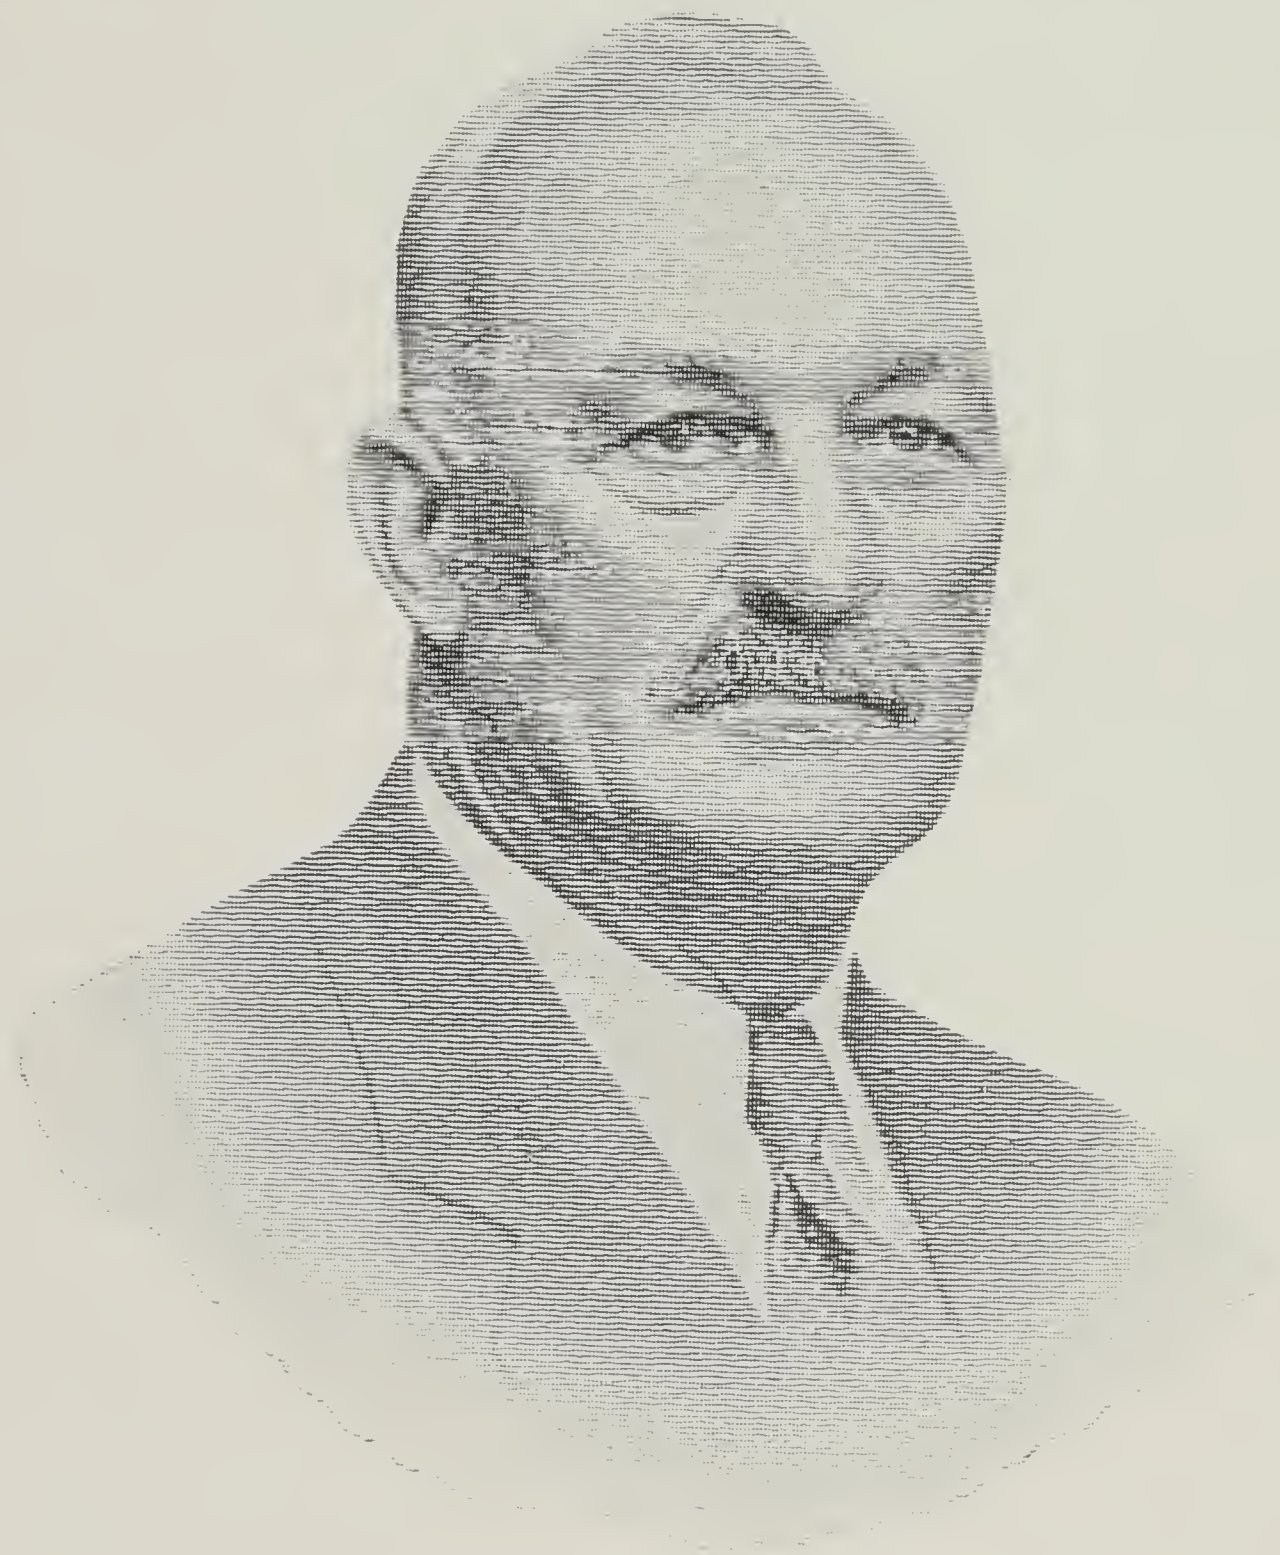

Immediately after his discharge from the army, Mr. Staudenmeier returned home and began again to practice law, and soon won respect from both bench and bar for the thoroughness with which he represented his clients and the manner in which he conducted his cases, in both civil and criminal courts. By sheer ability he early attracted the attention of those responsible for the leadership of Republican politics here in Schuylkill County and was nominated and elected to the House of Representatives at Harrisburg, where he served continuously from 1923 until he was elected to the Senate, in 1933, and where he continued to serve with distinction until the Democratic sweep of 1936, when with his party, he went down to defeat.

In addition to the above offices he has served as an assistant district attorney, under both Spicker and Snyder; is solicitor for several townships and serves as solicitor for the county controller at the present time. He is a member of the Schuylkill County, Pennsylvania and American Bar Associations and has long since been admitted to practice before both the Supreme and the Federal courts, having an active practice before the latter.

Mr. Staudenmeier married Sarah E. Dailey on August 30, 1922, and to Mr. and Mrs. Staudenmeier were born two daughters and two sons, Margaret Marie, 13; Charles W., Jr., 10; James Joseph, 5; and an infant several months of age, Sally Ann Staudenmeier. The family are communicants of the Roman Catholic Church. They reside in Ashland, at 1134 Spruce street, in which town Mr. Staudenmeier has his law offices, at 925 Centre street.

Mr. Staudenmeier is a member of the law fraternity, Delta Theta Phi; active in all American Legion circles as well as a member of the Elks and the Knights of Columbus. He is a member of the Ashland Gun and Country Club; he finds diversion at his principal hobby, fishing; baseball is his main sport, but both hobby and sport run second to his fondness for the game of politics in which he has played so important a part, in Republican circles, not only here in his home county of Schuylkill, but throughout the Keystone State.

CHARLES QUANDEL

CHARLES QUANDEL, head of the huge builders supply business bearing his name in Minersville, was truly an indefatigable worker in all things. In the business world; in banking circles; in community affairs; in fraternal circles; wherever he found his services might further a common good, there one was sure to find him giving his very all.

Born in Minersville, in eighteen hundred and seventy-five, on April third, the son of Emil and Wilhelmina Von der Heiden Quandel, his entire lifetime was to be spent among surroundings near and dear to his very heart. He attended the local public schools, leaving when about ten years of age to make himself a help to his parents; being satisfied to further his education as best he might while still doing his part in the furtherance of family help, by toiling. He studied by lamplight and often far into the night to further his education. That he profited much by his self education can best be proven by the high place he won in business and banking circles.

Charles Quandel was ever a student and so at the time of his death. March eighth, Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-Seven, he could be truthfully classed as one of the very leaders not only in his home community, Minersville, but throughout Schuylkill County, in the marts of trade and finance.

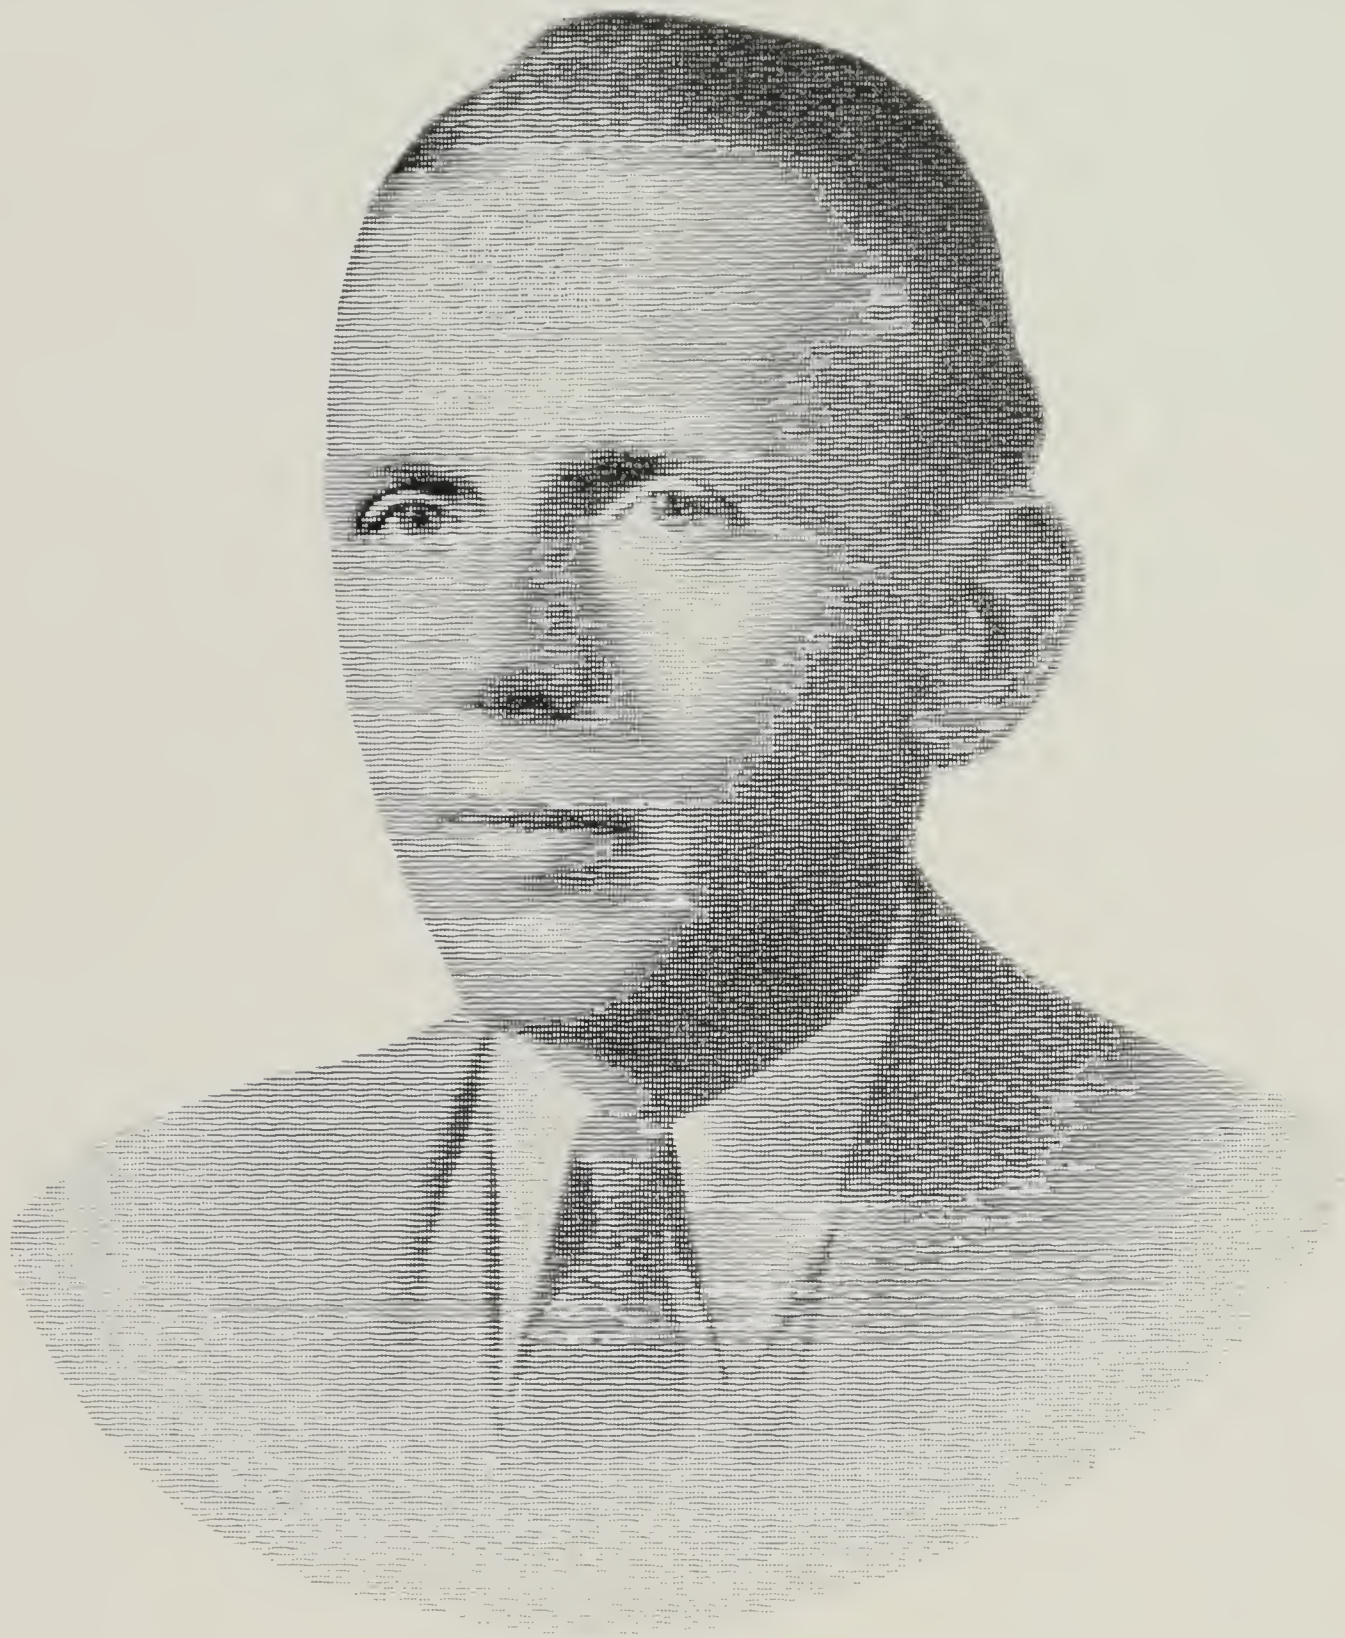

In addition to the active management of his building supply business, he served as president and director of the Minersville Safe Deposit Bank; and was the prime mover of the new Rotary Club of Minersville, the founding members of which had made him their first president. Until shortly before his death he had been for a number of years the chief of the Rescue Fire Company, Minersville, of which he had been a member from young manhood.

He found time, too, for service as a member of the Taxpayers Association, and was very active in organizations having to do with his everyday business, such as the Middle Atlantic Lumbermen's Association and the Lumber and Builders Supply Association of Schuylkill County.

As soon as he was in a position to do so, Mr. Quandel married Bessie Noble. Their marriage was blessed with five children, viz: Adda Quandel, Doris Quandel, Noble Quandel, Betty Quandel and James William Quandel all of whom reside at home with their mother, at 240 Carbon street, Minersville.

In addition to his business affairs, Mr. Quandel found time to serve his state and country whenever the call came; he was one of the most active Schuylkill Countians, during the days of the world war in the furtherance of the sale of Liberty Loan Bonds and in Red Cross activities. He was a member of the Minersville Lodge No. 222, Masonic Order; Rajah Temple, of the Shrine; member of the Commandery, Philadelphia Consistory and of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. His hobby was truly his interest in all civic affairs; his principal sport, hunting. In politics he was an Independent Republican, and in religion, a member of the Protestant Faith.

The business, since the death of Charles Quandel has continued under the management of his son, Noble Quandel, who has been associated with his father in business since having received his B. S. degree in architecture, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 1934. He, too, like his father holds membership in the new Minersville Rotary Club, and is a Mason, being a member of Apollo Lodge, Troy, N. Y., and is a member of Rajah Temple, of the Shrine.

GORDON M. BIEHL

GORDON M. BIEHL, recognized as the largest wholesale distributor in the Anthracite region in domestic and commercial refrigeration, as well as in the field of radio, is most certainly to be numbered among the more successful of the younger generation in business hereabout.

Mr. Biehl was born in Reading, Pennsylvania, in eighteen hundred and ninety-six, on the twenty-third day of September, the son of George and Julia Biehl. His younger days were spent in Reading, Pa., where he attended the local public schools.

Immediately after leaving his school books behind him, Mr. Biehl associated himself with his father, where he received the foundation for a business career that has ever stood him in good stead. The family leaving Reading located here in Pottsville and in a very humble manner started in the automotive parts business. Together the Biehls started growing in the business world and continued until the name meant the last word in their particular line not only in this vicinity but throughout the entire state of Pennsylvania.

For many years the firm kept growing, meanwhile adding to their varied lines of business, until the advent of the radio and electrical refrigeration, with its many branches, when from a very humble start these two branches of the Biehl business was making vast inroads on the automotive branch of their business, and today the automotive end has been entirely disposed of, with the firm holding the reputation as the largest wholesale distributor throughout Schuylkill County for the Philco Radio; Kelvinator Domestic and Commercial Refrigerator; Kelvinator Gas and Electric Ranges; Anthracite Stokers. "the electric furnace man."

The expansion of the Biehl firm in this their newest field has been rapid indeed; far exceeding their wildest expectations. To the everlasting credit of Gordon M. Biehl, who is treasurer and the general manager, of Biehl's, Incorporated, it can be truthfully stated that all through the darkest days of the depression he kept pushing forward; branching out and expanding in many directions, and today the firm is rightfully holding its place among the leaders, due to the faith of the firms head in the future of business not only here in Pottsville, but in the vast area they serve.

Gordon M. Biehl's confidence in the ultimate return of better days in the business world seems to have been well founded for Biehl's, Incorporated, now have more than three hundred radio dealers in their territory whom they supply. They also operate wholesale stores aside from their headquarters at 500 So. Centre St., Pottsville, in Wilkes-Barre, at 12 East South St., and in Scranton, at 417 Poplar St., employing in all more than half a hundred workers.

Business holds first place in the life of Gordon M. Biehl, not being particularly interested in any sport, nor riding any hobby, except the pleasure he gets out of seeing his business function. He is not a fraternalist. He makes his residence in Pottsville, at 500 South Centre St. and in religion is a member of the Baptist faith.

MAUD IRENE BOLTZ

MAUD IRENE BOLTZ, manufacturer, is not alone the leader among her sex in the world of business in this region, but is by the same token, a leader in several other fields to which she has devoted her efforts. She employs in her mill, three orchards and farms no less than two hundred men and women, which goes without saying makes her an all important figure in the prosperity of her beloved Pottsville and adjacent communities here in Schuylkill County.

Aside from the huge mill, where she manufactures men's, children's and women's underwear, at Ninth and Grant Sts., Pottsville, Mrs. Boltz is the owner and developer of Brunswick Orchards and Farms, with two hundred and fifty acres, in West Brunswick Township, this county, and the three hundred acre tract at Stone Mountain Manor, in Wayne Township, this county.

At Brunswick Orchards, Mrs. Boltz built one of the finest packing and refrigeration plants in the United States. This fall the yield exceeded more than ten thousand bushels of apples, which are stored and kept until the spring of next year, the growing, picking, packing and shipping all being under the direct supervision of Mrs. Boltz.

As might well be fancied, Mrs. Bolts is an indefatigable worker, with her manufacturing interests, her orchards, etc., one would think the average person would have their hands full with the many details entailed; but even so, with the coming of spring, 1938, Mrs. Boltz will prove positively that she is not the average type; she thrives on work, and her next venture will be to again open Stone Mt. Manor Pool and Park to the public. Stone Mt. Manor Pool is the finest in the State of Penna.

Mrs. Boltz, the widow of Jacob Boltz, who died on August 2nd, 1928, was born in Schuylkill Haven, the daughter of Samuel Reed and Mary C. Kerkeslager on May first, eighteen hundred and eighty. To Mr. and Mrs. Boltz were born three sons, all of whom are associated in various capacities with their mother's interests.

The eldest son, George J. Boltz, is vice-president of the Boltz Mill. He married Kathryn Morris, and their children are Ruth Irene, George, Jr. and Jacob Boltz, Jr.; the second son, Benjamin E. Boltz, is secretary of the Boltz interest and superintendent of the farms and orchards. He is married, his wife being Ruth Laubach Boltz, and they have one daughter, Bonnie Jean; the third son, Paul R. Boltz, is bookkeeper and assistant secretary of Jacob Boltz Knitting Mills. He, too, is married, his wife being Emma Weand Boltz and their son, Paul Boltz, Jr. Together with their mother the three sons are in active management of the vast Boltz holdings.

Mrs. Boltz was educated in the public schools in Schuylkill Haven, and attended the high school there, as well as the Pottsville Business College. She is a member of the Trinity Lutheran Church, and a member of the Eastern Star, Galilean Shrine. Her hobby is orchards and farming. She has a summer residence at Stone Mountain, and her city residence is at 317 North Ninth St., Pottsville.

A worthy note to record of Mrs. Boltz, is, that a lady, strictly a Schuylkill Countian, stands at the head of the business ranks of either sex, exploiting ideas that have advanced her business by leaps and bounds, competing in any line in which she devotes her time and attention, and winning out against all obstacles. Truly, she is a wonderful organizer, and stands high in financial ratings.

ENGINEERS AND AGENTS OF THE GIRARD ESTATE

ALL AMERICA contains no story of success that deserves more recognition, nor holds higher place in the hearts of the people, than the story of Stephen Girard.

Particularly does this relate to the part he played and those who carried on for his estate in the vast development of his lands in Schuylkill County.

Stephen Girard, merchant, financier, philanthropist, was born in Bordeaux, France, May 20, 1750. At 14, he went to sea as cabin boy. In 1773, licensed to act as captain, when only 23 years old.

He first arrived in Philadelphia, going there to avoid capture by the British forces in 1776. The year after his arrival he married Mary Lum. He made his home in Mt. Holly, New Jersey.

The "schedule of the Girard Estate" shows he purchased in 1795 and 1832, 29,494 $\frac{3}{4}$ acres of coal land in Schuylkill County for \$175,246.37. To develop this land, \$200,000 was invested in Pottsville and Danville Railroad so that the total cost of his coal land was over \$375,000.

In 1863, Franklin D. Kaercher first entered mining operations, having been the Girard Estate agent since 1857, succeeding I. D. Meredith. He was the father of George R., Samuel H. and Daniel W. Kaercher and grandfather to the present solicitor, George H. Kaercher.

Stephen Harris succeeded Colonel Kaercher in 1864 and served until March 10, 1874, when he was killed while on inspection, by a coal train at Frackville.

Heber S. Thompson was the next engineer and agent appointed April 1, 1874. He was born in Pottsville, August 14, 1847 of Scotch-Irish ancestry. For 37 years Major Thompson served as agent and engineer of the Girard Estate.

With the death of Major Thompson, Colonel James Archbald, who was then an assistant, succeeded as the agent of the estate. He was associated with Major Thompson from 1898 to the latter's death, 1911.

Col. Archbald was born at Scranton, February 19, 1866. His ancestry is traceable in America to the early Colonial days. His paternal grandfather, James Archbald, the fourth of that name, was a direct descendant from Robert Wodrow, the Scotch historian.

He was educated in the Scranton common schools, Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., in 1883, and Yale University in 1887.

On June 27, 1898, he became associated with his father-in-law, Major Heber S. Thompson, mining expert and First Defender of the Civil War and served as civil and mining engineer until 1910.

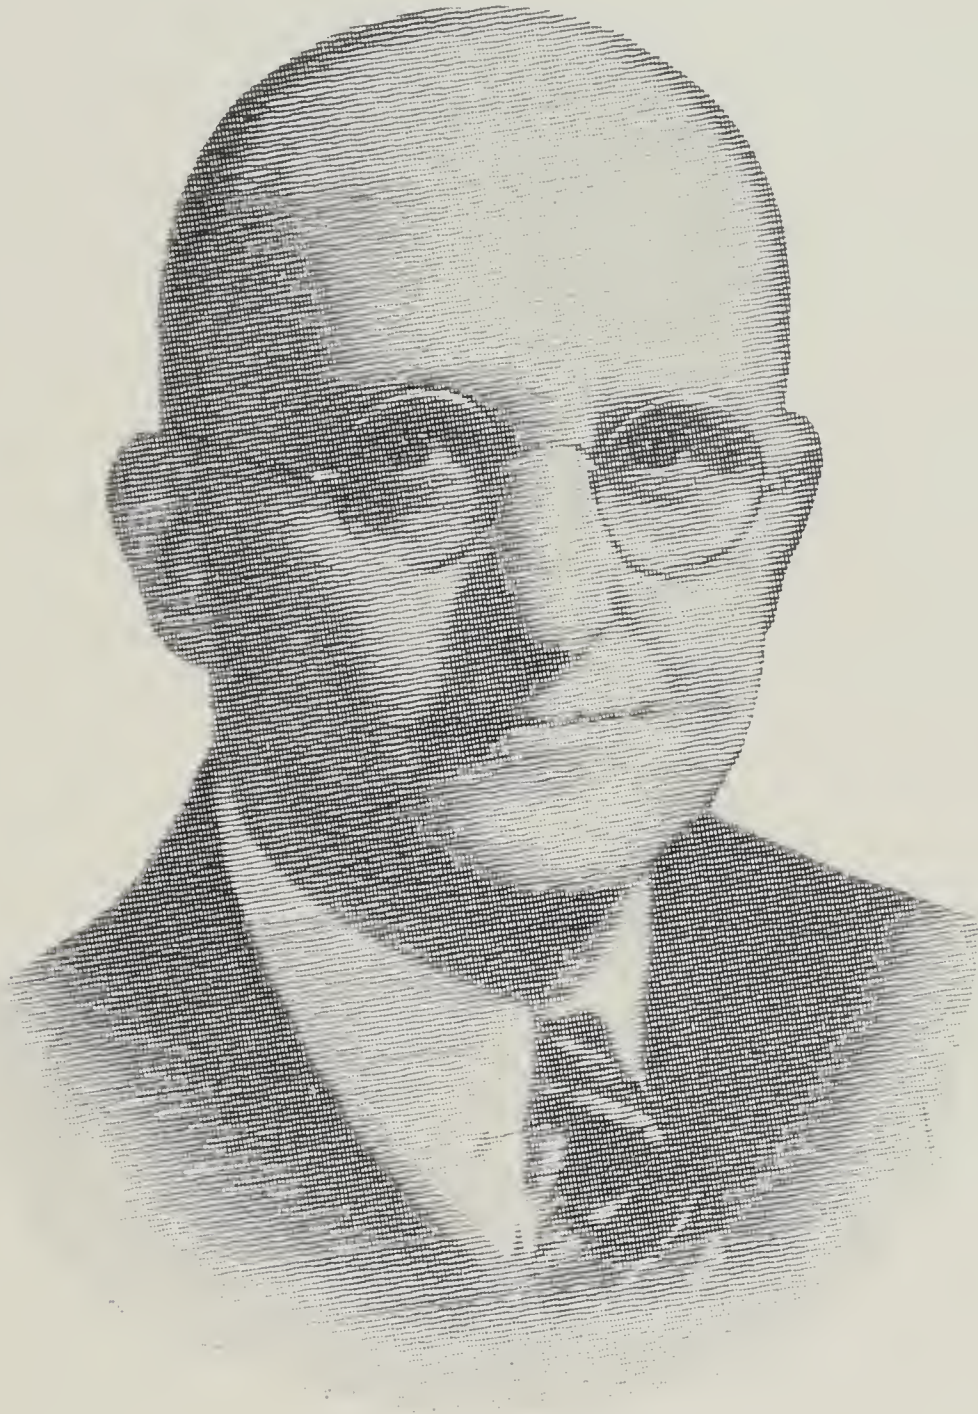

From April 1, 1911, he served as mining engineer and agent for the Girard Estate until his death, July 24, 1937.

He was president of the Miners National Bank from February 29, 1928 up to the time of his death.

On March 25, 1881, he became associated with Company C, 13th Regiment, Penna. National Guard. During the Spanish-American War he was a drillmaster for a battalion organized in Schuylkill County. He organized Company M, 11th Penna. Infantry for the provision of National Guard in 1899, and this Company consolidated with Company F, 4th Penna. Infantry. He was the unanimous choice for the captaincy. In 1904 was an aide on the staff of Governor Stuart and served until January 17, 1911, serving also under Governor Pennypacker with rank as Lieutenant Colonel, and later served on the Mexican border in Texas, where he was made captain of Company C Engineers, and was in the U. S. service from July 8, 1916 to March 1, 1917, when he was placed on the retired list, June 27, 1919 with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. He was the son of the late James B. and Hannah Maria (Albright) Archbald. He was associated with many organizations and took active part in Schuylkill Country Club, Pottsville Club, Chamber of Commerce, Yale Club, Phila.; and Graduates Club, New Haven, Conn.

His wife, Miss Margaretta Thompson, daughter of Major Heber S. Thompson, survives, together with the following four children: Margaretta, wife of Frederick W. Kroll, of Port-Au-Prince, Haiti; Sara, who is now Sister Mary Aquinas, of New York City; James Archbald, of Allentown, and Wodrow Archbald, of Pottsville.

He was a consistent member and official of the First Presbyterian Church, Pottsville, and director and treasurer of the Y. M. C. A. from 1894 to 1936.

LEROY E. ENTERLINE

LEROY E. ENTERLINE was born in Ashland, Pennsylvania, December 20, 1886, moving to Pottsville shortly thereafter and returning to Ashland in 1897; attended the public schools of Pottsville and Ashland and later matriculated at the Stephen Hall Preparatory School of Gettysburg College, graduating from the latter college in 1908 with the degree of Bachelor of Science; later attended the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

His father, the late S. Monroe Enterline, Esquire, had legal offices in Pottsville and Ashland, and stood well in the councils of the legal fraternity of the county. LeRoy, upon returning from college, read law in the office of his father and was admitted to practice before the Schuylkill County Bar on January 30, 1914.

The firm became Enterline and Enterline and remained so up until the time of the demise of the elder Enterline in 1917, after which time he practiced under his own name, with offices at Ashland and Pottsville, Pennsylvania until 1937, at which time he associated with him, H. Franklin Kehler, of Ashland, Pennsylvania, under the name of Enterline and Kehler with offices at the above places.

He is the treasurer of the Schuylkill County Bar Association; A director and charter member of the North Mountain Building and Loan Association of Ashland, Pennsylvania, charter member and first president of the Kiwanis Club and at present a director thereof. Fraternally he is associated with the Masons, the Odd Fellows, P. O. S. of A., and the Jr. Order United American Mechanics. Has been active in the Boy Scout Movement in the county as well as in his hometown, in which latter place he has several times served as chairman of the annual drive for funds. In like manner he has acted as chairman for the soliciting of funds for the Salvation Army. Was a charter member and active director for some years in the Anthracite Co-operative Association.

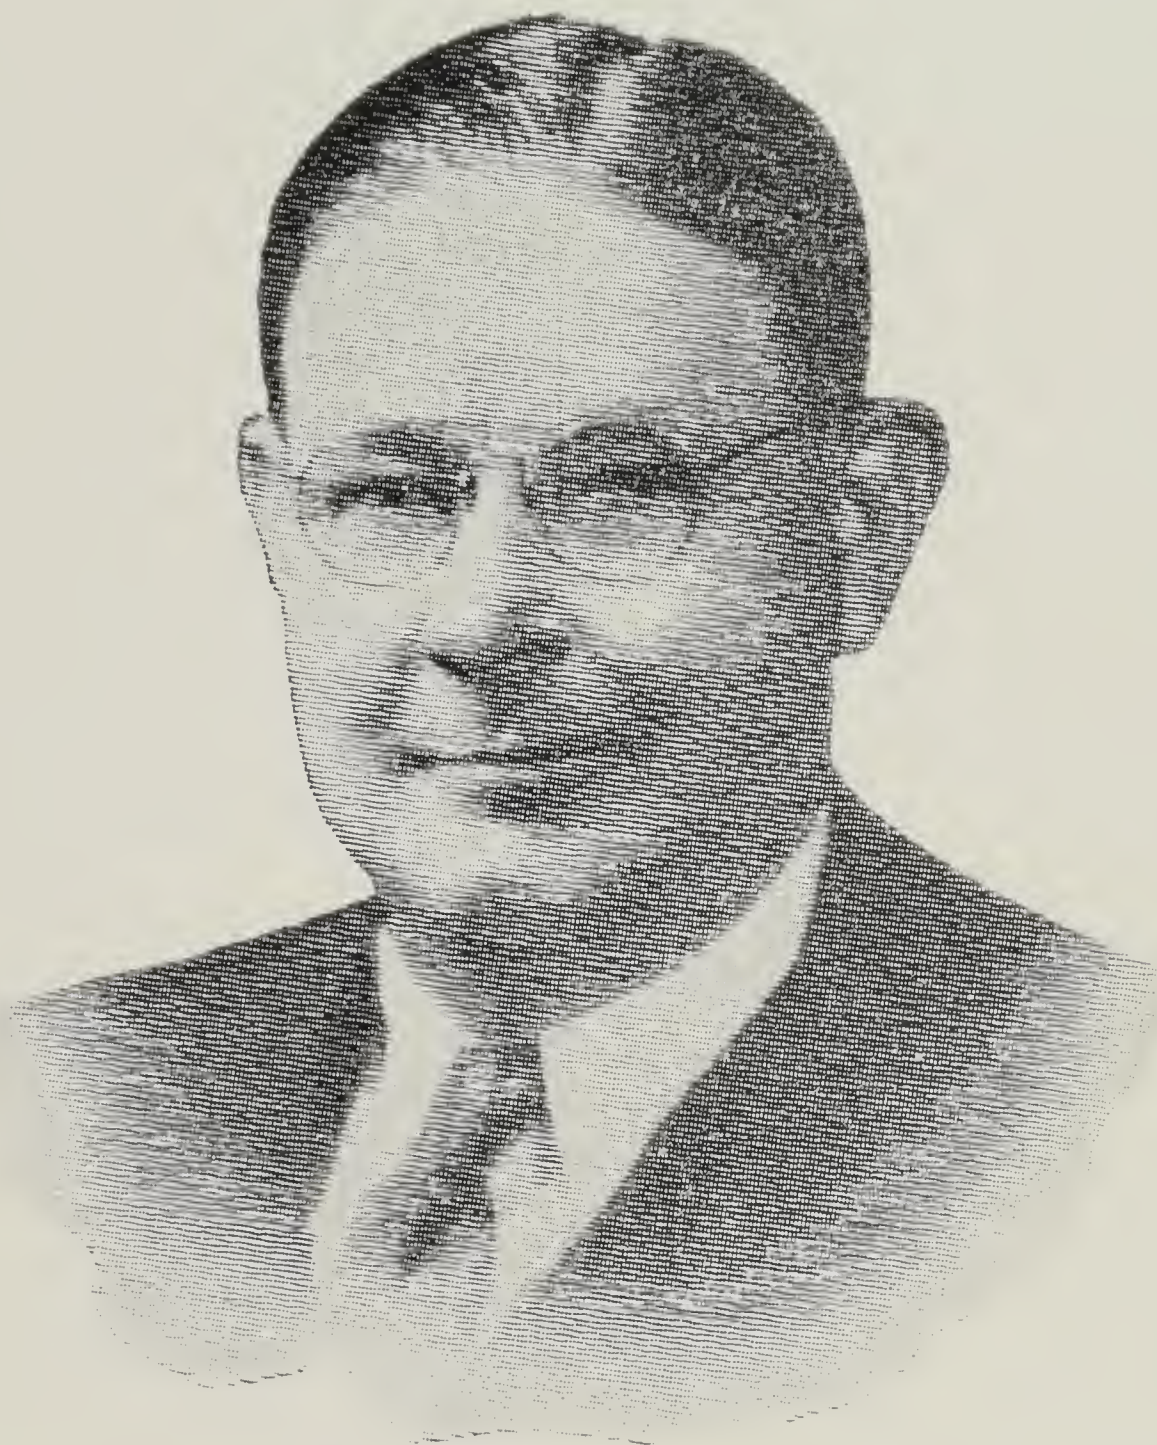

In religious circles he served the St. James Lutheran Church of Ashland, Pennsylvania in various capacities for many years, being at present one of the council also superintendent of the Sunday School.

Politically he has been actively identified with the Republican Party for many years. Upon the death of Charles A. Snyder, he was appointed by the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Schuylkill County to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Snyder and filled this office by appointment until his election thereto in 1933 to serve until the end of 1937, at which time he retired.

In 1916 he was appointed solicitor of the Borough of Ashland which position he holds to the present time.

He is a devotee of horse back riding, and all outdoor activity.

He married Miss Nellie Weaver, of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, and that union was blessed with a delightful family, as follows: Stephenson Monroe, 19, graduate of Wyoming Seminary; now at Lehigh University; H. Theodore, 18, graduate of Ashland High School, now attending Gettysburg College; Richard Stanley, 16, Robert R., 13, Elizabeth Ann, 10, all attendants of the Ashland Public Schools, and William W. Enterline, born June 11, 1937.

JOHN HENRY BROKHOFF

JOHN HENRY BROKHOFF, Dairyman, has one of the finest equipped and most complete plants of its kind in all Pennsylvania, and surely one of the show places of Schuylkill County, at Tumbling Run, just outside the City of Pottsville,

Located in one of the most beautiful spots in Eastern Pennsylvania, the milk and cream dairy of Mr. Brokhoff is the last word in modernization and equipped with every device for the production of the very finest in all that goes to make up the successful dairyman's output.

The head of the huge Brokhoff business, John Henry Brokhoff, was born in Germany, in eighteen hundred and eighty-three, on July twenty-second, the son of William and Maria Crompt Brokhoff. While still a child, he was brought to America; the family settling in the immediate neighborhood where his big plant is now located; here he received his early education and here, too, he turned to the farm for his living when he put away the school books.

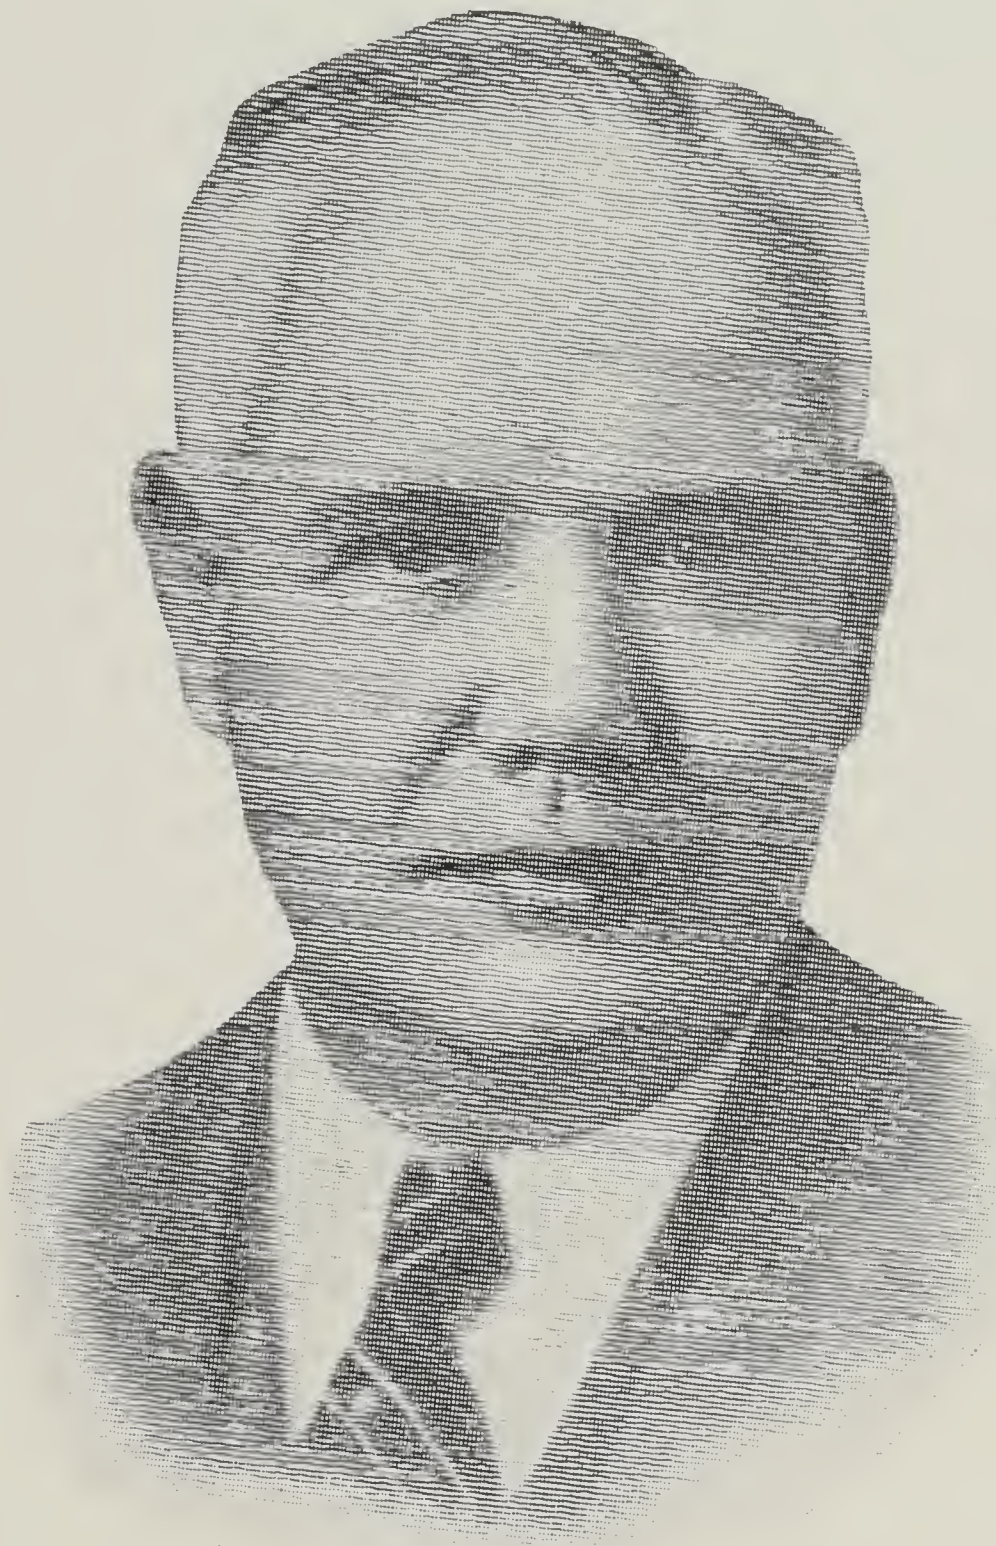

In the little red school house, in Blythe Township, Tumbling Run, he first met Gertrude Amanda Heiser, whom he later married. Together the young married couple started on their journey along life's highway; he secured a horse and buggy and started in business for himself as a full fledged dealer in milk and cream.

From this very humble beginning has developed Brokhoff's Dairy Products business, with nineteen delivery trucks, two supply tank trucks and forty-five employees, who handle, every twenty-four hours, the product of almost one hundred milk producers and farmers from this immediate section of Pennsylvania. The business was organized thirty-two years ago and today is one of the most flourishing, in its field, in the entire state.

No single business is closer identified with the growth of Pottsville, over the last three decades than is that of John Henry Brokhoff.

Mr. and Mrs. Brokhoff reside in the old homestead, overlooking the valley, at Tumbling Run with their family. Three daughters and two sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Brokhoff, viz: Marion Brokhoff, who married Thomas Moyer, and who is office manager of the Brokhoff business; Harold R. Brokhoff, who married Mary Blicher and who serves as vice-president and route foreman in his father's business; John H., Jr., graduate of Pottsville High School, Muhlenburg College, Allentown; Lutheran Theological Seminary, Mt. Airy, Philadelphia, and appointed assistant pastor of the First English Evangelical Lutheran Church, Richmond, Va. He wedded Helen Leininger, of Greenwood Hill, Pottsville.

Mr. Brokhoff is a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, being identified with the Lily of the Valley Lodge. He is an active member of the Dairyman's Association of both Schuylkill County and Pennsylvania. When time permits he is an ardent hunter and enjoys baseball among his principal sports. He and the members of his family are communicants of the Lutheran Church, attending the Trinity Lutheran Church, Pottsville.

HENRY OLIVER BECHTEL

HENRY OLIVER BECHTEL, son of the late Oliver Perry Bechtel and Mary Elizabeth von Epting, is a native of Pottsville. He graduated from the Pottsville High School, attended Haverford College, and lived to succeed his illustrious father as President Judge of the Schuylkill County Courts.

He was admitted to the Schuylkill County Bar on July 2nd, 1894; served as County Solicitor in 1898 and 1899; City Solicitor 1928.

His father, Oliver Perry Bechtel, served as Judge of Schuylkill County Courts from January 1st, 1878 to January 1st, 1908, a period of 30 years, five of which he served as President Judge. Before going on the Bench, he served as State Senator.

His son, H. O. Bechtel, succeeded his father as Judge in 1908, and served in that high office until January 1st, 1928, twenty years, sixteen years as the youngest President Judge in the State of Pennsylvania, in a Court composed of three Common Pleas Judges.

The original family of which Hans Jacob Bechtel was the head, established itself in this country in Berks County in 1728, coming from Berne, Switzerland, and receiving an original grant of land from William Penn.

Hans Bechtel, son and grandson, served as Bishops in the Mennonite Church at Bally, Pa., which they built in 1728, and which has but recently been destroyed.

All of the ancestors of Judge H. O. Bechtel, on both sides, served in the American Revolution; two being officers.

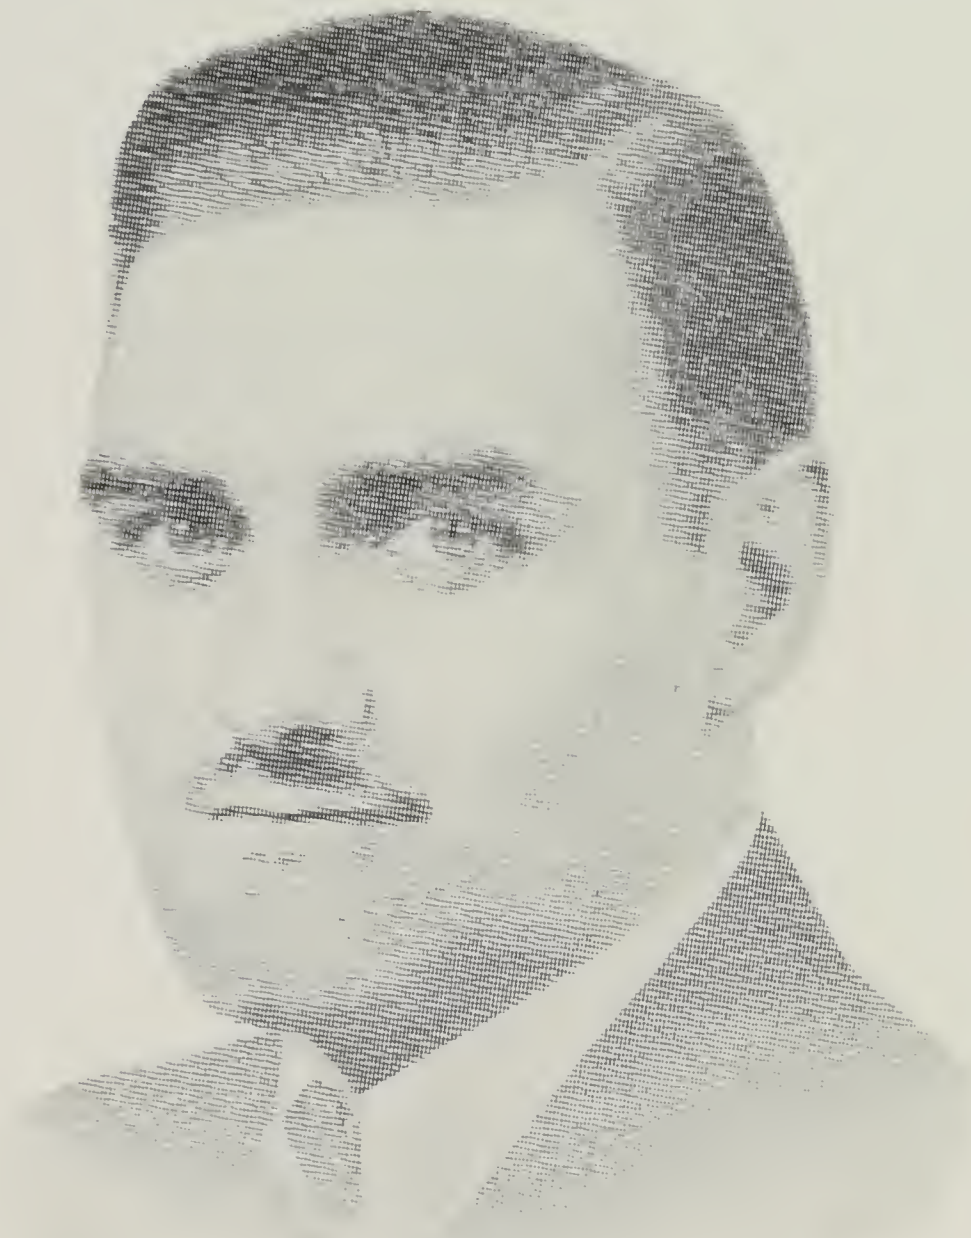

Philip Meyer, a great uncle on the mother's side, formed the National Guard under General Mifflin, then Governor of Pennsylvania, and Johannes G. Meyer, his great-grandfather, was the first Surveyor General of Pennsylvania.

H. O. Bechtel wedded Bessie Adams Seidell, a native of Pottsville, and their union was blessed with the following children: Josephine Adams Bechtel, Hilorez Eleanor von Epting Bechtel.

Fraternally he was associated with P. O. S. of A., B. P. O. E., Pottsville Club, Wyomissing Club, Schuylkill Country Club. Member of the First Presbyterian Church.

Schuylkill County may well speak in highest praise of the accomplishments of their fellow citizen, for his efforts while on the Bench were crowned with signal honors, his decisions rarely being reversed in the higher courts, Superior or Supreme, a well balanced judgment at all times making his decisions such as to be sustained with credit to all litigants. Rarely has his good judgment been attacked, for a judicial mind of a high degree, coupled with legal versatility and commanding personality, has won him many honors. He was without doubt an able jurist, and since his retirement from the Bench, he is sought in the majority of cases brought before the local courts.

JAMES J. CURRAN

JAMES J. CURRAN, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Schuylkill County, Pa., was elevated to this coveted honor during the election in November, 1937, with an overwhelming vote, following his appointment to the judgeship by Governor George H. Earle, when a new Act went into effect adding another judge to the county, his constituents realizing he had well performed his duties during his appointed term.

He was born in Minersville, Pa., the son of John T. and Mary Purcell Curran.

He graduated from the Minersville High School in 1922, and matriculated at the Keystone State Normal School at Kutztown, Pa., and Dickinson Law School, Carlisle, Pa., after which he entered the legal profession with offices in Minersville and Pottsville.

Immediately he took up the task of aiding his native town in all its activities, becoming a director of the Minersville Safe Deposit Bank, and later elected president of the same institution, also a director of the Minersville Building and Loan Association, adding his judgment and knowledge for the benefit of those who wished to procure a home for themselves, and thus make substantial citizens for the town of his birth. He is an indefatigable worker, and in the cause of Democracy has won the applause of those of County and State.

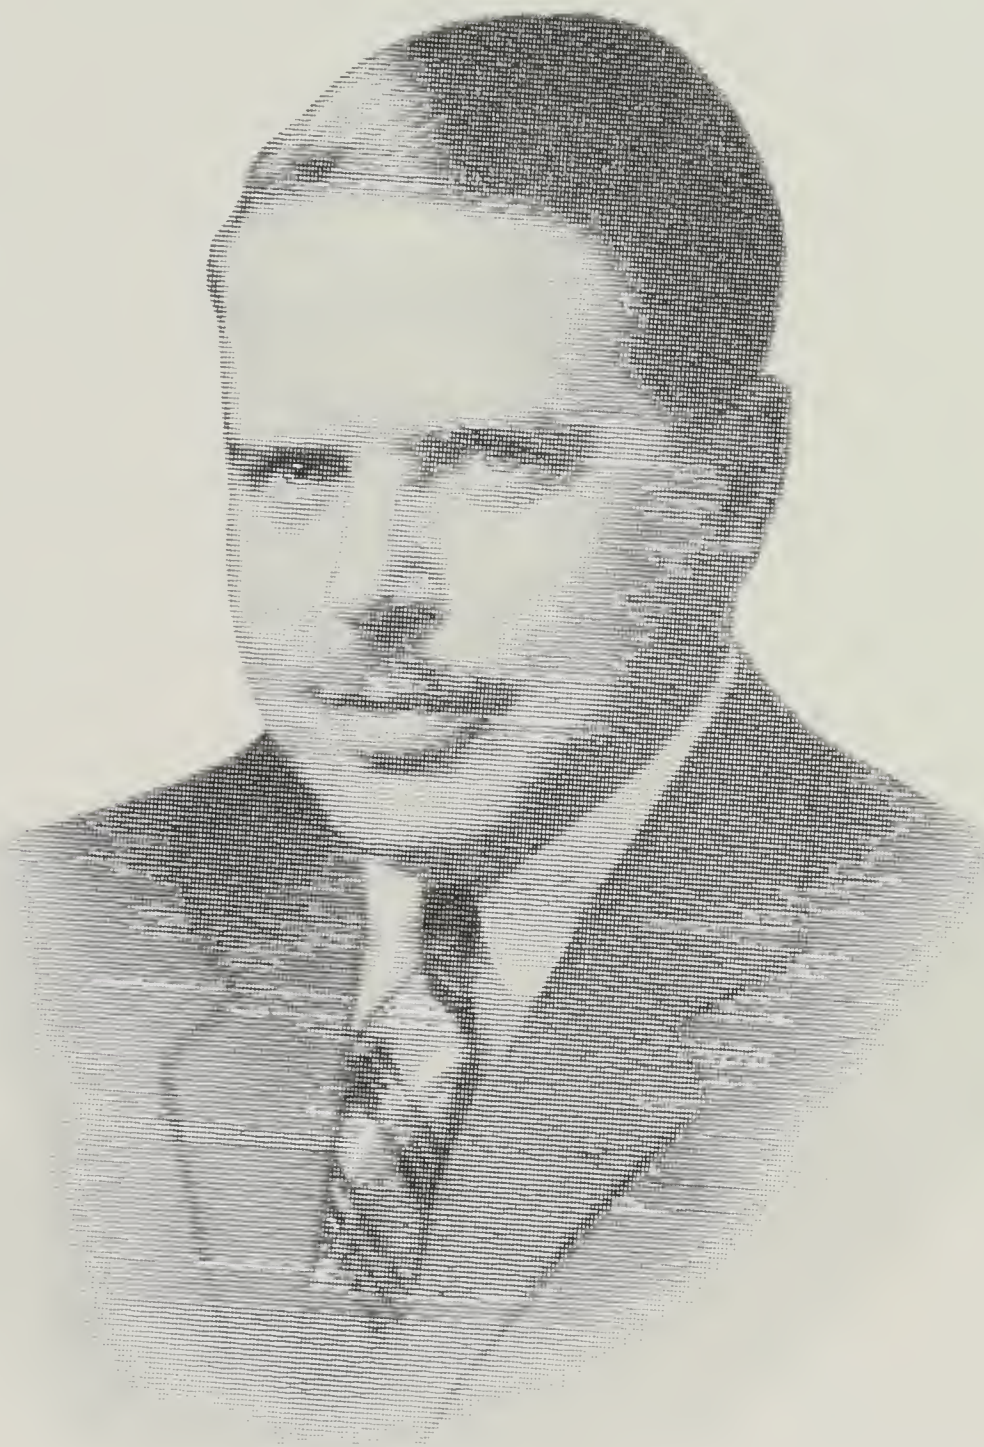

During the campaign of 1937, he won the judgeship fight that places him on the bench for the term of ten years, receiving a large complimentary vote.

Judge Curran has not been an enthusiastic fraternal member, but is a member of the Pottsville Club, and Minersville Rotary Club, and enjoys open air activities.

He was wedded to Miss Frances Dunn, granddaughter of the late Hon. P. M. Dunn, Judge of the Orphans' Court, of this county. He is a communicant of the Roman Catholic faith.

Being a young man, he stands on the threshold of a brilliant career, always ready and willing to give of his talents for the cause of humanity, a willing and sympathetic listener, a judicial mind open for the right of justice, one of the generation's youngest men who are coming into their own.

JOSEPH HENRY ZERBEY, JR.

BORN IN POTTSVILLE, the son of Joseph Henry and Cora Elisabeth (Sigfried) Zerbey, Joseph Henry Zerbey, Jr., has at all times been interested in the success of Schuylkill County, perhaps because of the connection of his own and his wife's family with colonial days in this region. At the time Schuylkill County was purchased from the Indians historians say there were about thirty families in the area which is now Schuylkill County and of these thirty families two of them were ancestors of Mr. Zerbey and one was an ancestor of Mrs. Zerbey.

He graduated from Pottsville High School in 1905 and after a year's Post Graduate work, entered Lafayette College, Easton. After graduating from College in 1910, he served an apprenticeship in all the various departments of the "Pottsville Evening Republican" newspaper plant. At the outset of the World War his several months' volunteer work in Washington was rewarded by a commission as a Lieutenant in the Ordnance Department, where he served in personnel work until discharged in 1917 as Major in the Army Reserve Corps. After spending some months in travel, he again took up the work in the local newspaper field and, upon the sudden death of his father in 1933, became President of the J. H. Zerbey Newspapers Inc., now publishing the "Schuylkill (New Deal Reporter)," in the morning and the "Pottsville Republican" in the evening.

Joseph Henry Zerbey, Jr., after the World War, became interested in the Reserve Officers' Association and in the Citizens' Military Training Camps, organizing and directing the work of the Press Relations Branch in numerous camps in the Third Corps Area, after which he was called to duty on the Army General Staff in Washington, D. C., for a six months period in 1930, to extend this work throughout the country. For this, he was highly commended and promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel with a "Certificate of Capacity" as a Colonel. He has served as a member of many committees in connection with the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association. He is Treasurer of the Huguenot Society of Pennsylvania and is a member of the Union League of Philadelphia.

Another of Mr. Zerbey's hobbies has been the organizing and direction of numerous semi-public endeavors among which might be mentioned the sending of a prize winning "Miss Pottsville" to National Beauty Contests in Atlantic City about 1925 and the annual presentation of an outstanding Cooking School which entertains thousands of the friends of the "Pottsville Republican" each year.

He was married to Catherine Bannan Zerbey on June 9, 1915. The union was blest with one son, Joseph Henry Zerbey, 3rd, who was born December 26, 1916. At the age of twelve he became a member of the Pottsville Methodist Episcopal Church just before it moved from Second St., between Market and Arch, to the larger quarters at Fourth and Garfield Square. In 1928 he was confirmed in the Trinity Episcopal Church in order that he might be a member of the same church as his wife and son.

(For Zerbey genealogical material, see "The Blue Book of Schuylkill County." Brief Sigfried and Sims biographies appear on pages 75-B and 76-B, this volume.)

MRS. FRANCES ZERBEY BRAUN

FRANCES ZERBEY BRAUN, the daughter of Joseph Henry and Cora Elisabeth (Sigfried) Zerbey, was born in Minersville, Pa., removing shortly thereafter to Pottsville with her parents, and has resided there her entire life.

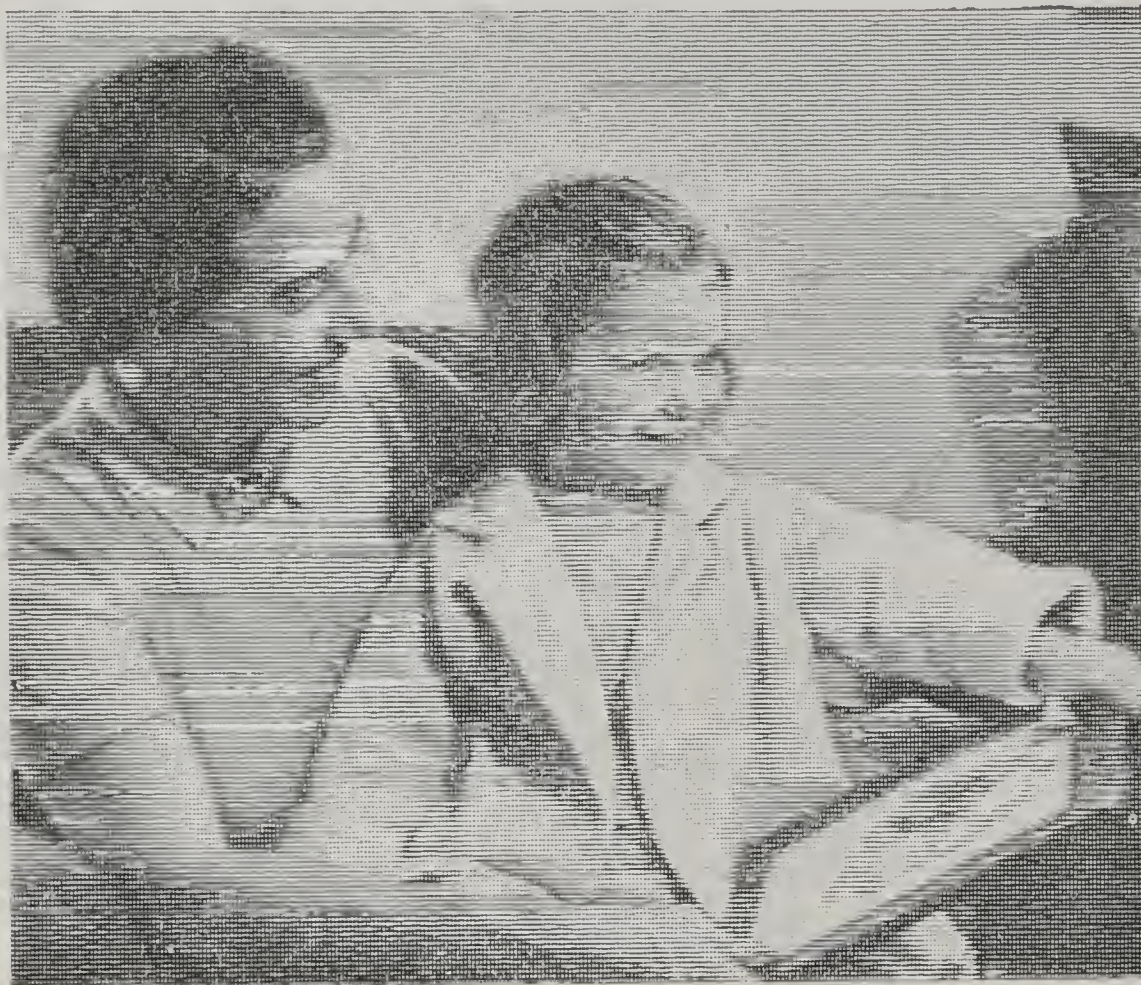

She is a graduate of the Pottsville High School, and attended the Misses Ely's School on Riverside Drive, New York City, N. Y., returning to Pottsville where she took up the reading of law in the offices of Wesley K. Woodbury, Esq., and was admitted as a member of the Schuylkill County Bar Association, permitting her to practice in the courts of the county, and also in the Superior and Supreme Courts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. She was the first woman lawyer in the State.

At the tender age of seven, she took up the study of piano and violin as her choice of instruments, studying under the late lamented Frederic Gerhard, taking advanced courses under the famous artist, Gustav Dannreuter, of New York City.

Mrs. Braun became a member of the Gerhard String Quartette, which appeared before leading musical audiences in this and other cities of the State, and was concert meister of the Gerhard Symphony Orchestra, of Pottsville, Pa., an organization that won honors in concerts and rendition of oratorios, augmenting the orchestra to over one hundred musicians, rendering in superb style such works as "Samson," "Messiah," etc.

She is prominent in Mahantongo Chapter of the D. A. R., Women's Club and other organizations in this city, and delights in the problems of cultivation of beautiful flowers.

MRS. LAZARUS AND DAUGHTER

MILDRED ZERBEY LAZARUS was born in Pottsville, Pa., on October 19, 1897. She attended the Pottsville Schools, graduating in 1916 from the Pottsville High School. She later attended The Castle, a school in Tarrytown, N. Y., from which she graduated in 1918.

Mrs. Lazarus and her sister, Mrs. Uzal Martz, were instrumental in the organization of the Girl Reserve Group of the Pottsville Y. W.

C. A. She was always active in philanthropic organizations. Mrs. Lazarus has been particularly interested in the Young Women's Christian Association, and is President of the Newark Y. W. C. A. Board of Directors and chairman of the Girl Reserve committee. She is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

On September 8, 1930, Mildred Zerbey married Sydney A. Lazarus. They have one daughter, Margaretta Elizabeth.

MRS. MARTZ AND CHILDREN

CORA ELISABETH ZERBEY MARTZ, daughter of Joseph Henry and Cora Elisabeth Zerbey, was born in Pottsville, Pa., April 29th, 1900.

She attended the Pottsville public schools, graduating from the Pottsville High School in the Class of 1917.

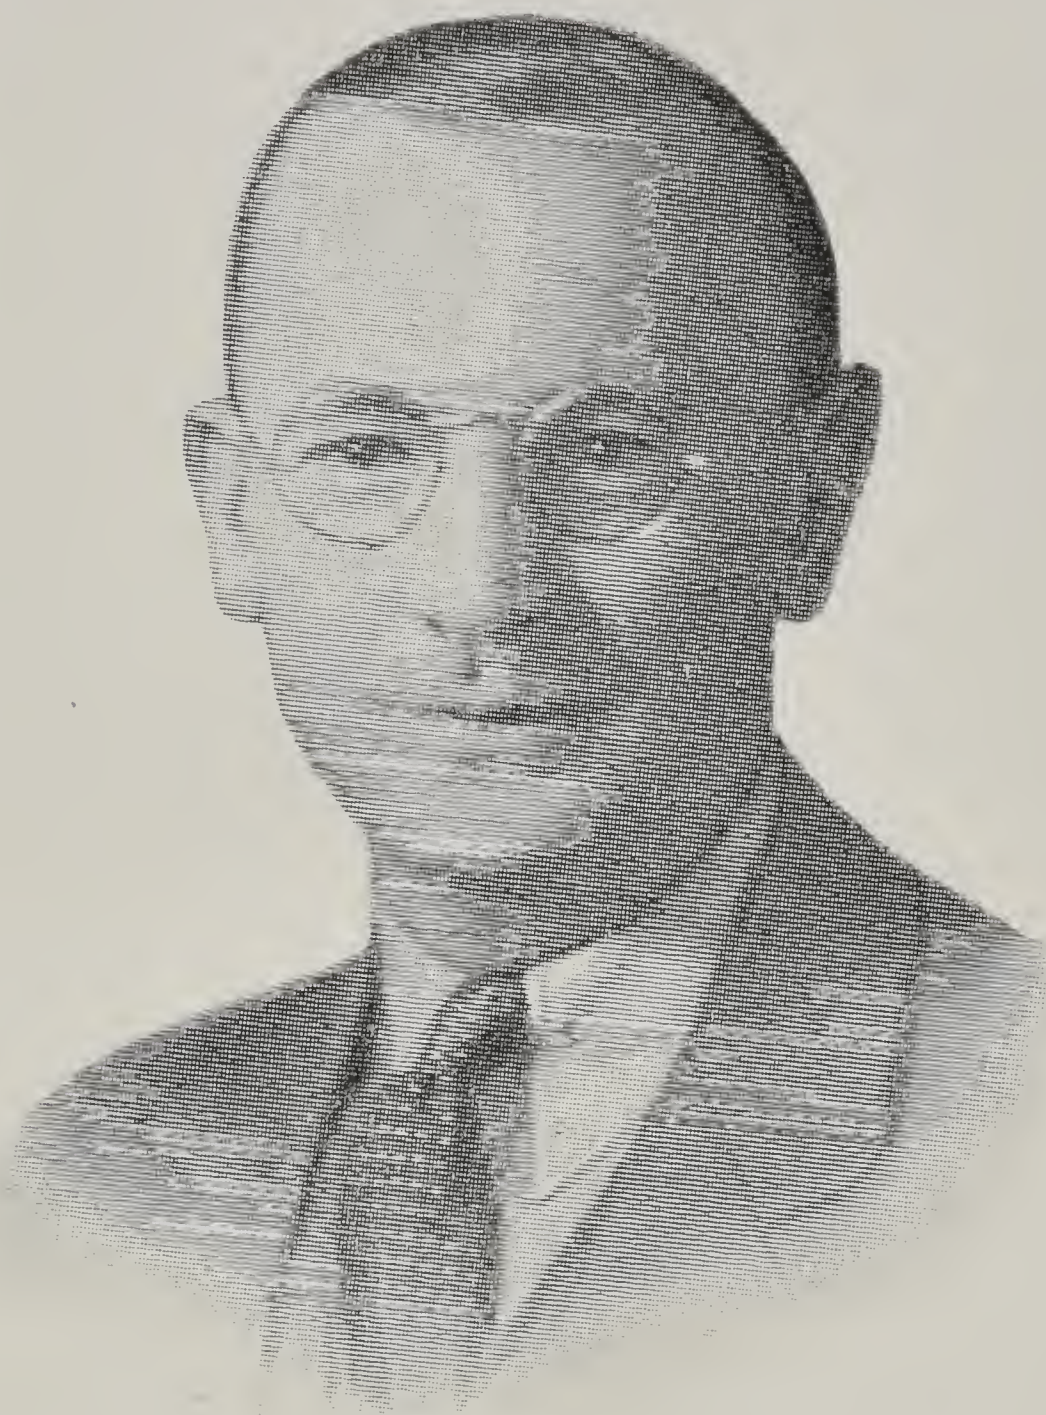

After her graduation she attended the Castle, a school of Tarrytown, N. Y., and graduated from the school in 1919.

After returning from school, she became active in the Girl Reserves, a subsidiary of the local Y. W. C. A., and was a pioneer in the organizing of summer camps, selecting camp sites near Taylorsville, this county, where the younger girls of this city came under her observation, and heartily participated in the outdoor life. Out of this movement came the group that finally resulted in the forming of a permanent organization that built Camp Chickagama at Sweet Arrow Lake.

On June 8, 1927, she was wedded to Uzal H. Martz. Three children was the result of this union: Elisabeth Jane, deceased; JoHanne Zerbey and Uzal H. Martz, Jr.

With her family, she is a communicant of the Trinity Episcopal Church of this city.

UZAL H. MARTZ

UZAL H. MARTZ

UZAL H. MARTZ, son of Lloyd and Mary J. Martz, has resided since the day of his birth, in the City of Pottsville. He attended the Pottsville Public Schools, graduating from the Pottsville High School and the Commercial School.

He is an ardent sportsman, excelling in horsemanship, keeping a stable of finely bred animals and getting much recreation out of them, with harness racing his chief delight.

He enjoys baseball and basketball, and during his high school days took active interest in these sports, and follows the game closely at the present time.

Fraternally he is a member of Pulaski Lodge, F. and A. M., also of Bloomsburg Consistory and Rajah Temple.

Mr. Martz is employed with the Peerless Coal and Coke Co., Pottsville, Pa., and holds the following offices and memberships in various organizations:

Secretary-Treasurer and Director, Peerless Coal & Coke Co.; Secretary and Director, Pottsville Community Hotel Co.; Secretary, Pottsville Hotel & Realty Company; Secretary-Treasurer and Director, Schuylkill Country Club; Secretary and Director, J. H. Zerbey Newspapers Inc.; Trustee, Incorporated Trustees of Diocese of Bethlehem; Member, Executive Council of the Diocese of Bethlehem; Director and Chairman Executive Committee, Jonestown Home; Clerk and Vestryman, Trinity Episcopal Church; Secretary-Treasurer, Powhatan Coal and Coke Co.; Executor and Trustee of J. H. Zerbey Estate.

He wed Cora Elisabeth Zerbey, daughter of the late Joseph Henry Zerbey, on June 8, 1927, and their union was blessed with these children; JoHanne Zerbey and Uzal H. Martz, Jr., one child, Elisabeth Jane, deceased.

Mr. and Mrs. Martz are communicants of the Trinity Episcopal Church, and the children likewise participate in the activities of that congregation.

MR. AND MRS. E. L. CLIFFORD

EDMUND LAMBERT CLIFFORD, son of William Warren and Mary Clifford, was born in Mahanoy City, Pa., September 30, 1869, moving with his family to Kalmia, near Muir, where his father was inside foreman at the John Phillips Colliery, residing there a few years, removing later to Saint Clair, and thence to Frackville, where the family remained until the death of his father, in 1884.

His education consisted of a grade equal to the present eighth grade, but it became necessary to seek work, so he entered the drug store of the late Wm. A. Davis, but finding remuneration greater at the breaker, selected employment at the West Bear Ridge and Gilberton collieries, soon discovering nothing was to be gained at an Anthracite operation, he followed with the family to Pottsville where he finally entered the service of the Pottsville "Republican," under the late Joseph Henry Zerbey, and remained with him up to the time of his passing away, and being named an Executor of the J. H. Zerbey Estate, became Treasurer and General Manager of the J. H. Zerbey Newspapers, Inc., and has acted in that capacity since that time.

He wedded Maude Kammerer, daughter of a former Pottsville printer and veteran of the Civil War. The following children were born to them: Edmund L., deceased; Marion, and Mrs. Arthur (Maude) Follett; one grandchild, Jeanne Marie Follett.

His fondness for music led him to an association with the late Frederic Gerhard, resulting in his becoming a member of the Third Brigade Band, Pottsville Symphony Orchestra and Methodist Choir, taking active interest in musical events in this city for many years.

As he advanced to the foremanship of the "Republican" Office, following the death of the late Robert Zerbey, brother of the proprietor, he soon was called to the main office, becoming advertising solicitor, and general manager of this publication, serving many years with the lamented Jos. H. Zerbey.

He is a lover of travel, endeavoring to visit some foreign country each year, first seeing his own country and adjoining countries. He and his family are communicants of the Methodist Church. He is little interested in fraternal organizations, the Odd Fellows being his only connection.

Having been deeply interested in Schuylkill County History, he is the publisher of "Schuylkill County In The World War," published a small history of Schuylkill County, used during the Pottsville Centennial as a souvenir of the Dives, Pomeroy and Stewart firm at that time, and aided the late Mrs. Ella Zerbey Elliott in compiling the "Blue Book of Schuylkill County," and "Old Schuylkill Tales," two volumes that have won recognition throughout this country, and demands are made for them even in foreign countries.

His daughter, Miss Marion Clifford, secretary of the Schuylkill County Historical Society, takes active interest in works of this nature, and is a lover of the soil, organizing what is termed the Dirt Gardeners, who have become proficient in building beautiful gardens in the county, members joining from many sections of the county.

He was one of the oldest directors of the Pottsville Building and Loan Asso., No. 2, Pottsville, Pa., when he retired from the board, and has been president of the Greater Pottsville Building & Loan Asso., Pottsville, since its inception, April 2, 1914, which is now in process of becoming a member of the Federal Home Loan Bank of the Pittsburgh Branch, and Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corp.

MRS. ELLA ZERBEY ELLIOTT

ELLA ZERBEY ELLIOTT, sister of the late Joseph H. Zerbey, was educated in the Pottsville schools, and following her graduation, became a teacher of music, using her spare time to write for the "Schuylkill Republican," owned by her husband, Charles D. Elliott, and then residing in Minersville. She was a fluent writer, and her "Old Schuylkill County Tales," and "The Blue Book of Schuylkill County" have become records that will live for all time. She was most thorough in her compilation of historical works, which make them all the more valuable.

After the "Schuylkill Republican" was purchased by Jos. Henry Zerbey, an offspring, The "Daily Republican" was started in 1884, and a short time later, Charles D. Elliott became an associate editor, and upon his demise, Mrs. Elliott became an associate on the "Daily Republican." Some of her short stories were published in leading magazines, and her records used in her publications have become useful in this and foreign countries and since the supply of "Old Schuylkill Tales" has become exhausted, there has been demand for it. Her "Blue Book of Schuylkill County" contains the history of the most prominent families of this and Berks Counties, and is much sought after for historical facts.

She died on October 17, 1925.

MR. AND MRS. NELSON J. CLAYTON

NELSON J. CLAYTON, son of R. Bruce Clayton and Matilda H. Clayton, was born in Ashland, Penna., October 30, 1879, graduating from the Ashland High School, and thereupon entered the apprenticeship of the Garner Iron Works, Ashland, to learn the trade of machinist.

He continued at this work until he became foreman of the Goyne Steam Pump Co., of Ashland, which succeeded the Garner Iron Works, manufacturers of massive pumps then used extensively for removing water from mining operations. Unlike the present day pumping by electrical means, these pumps could be flooded for months, without material damage to them, and when the waters subsided, they functioned just as efficiently as before the flood. And so it was, this operation sent their products to many parts of the world, and Mr. Clayton gained much knowledge along this line, and in 1912, when the Pottsville Water Co. required a new superintendent, fully conversant with water transportation, he was selected for this job, and retains that position up to the present time.

He married Sally, daughter of Samuel and Sarah Evans, of Ashland, and to them was born four children: Bruce, wedded to Betty Hohn, Pottsville; Sarah, wife of Albert Guertler, Schuylkill Haven; Nelson, Jr., and Lois, both at home, at the residence 1350 West Norwegian Street, Pottsville. Pa.

Politically, he has been active in the ranks of the Republican party in Schuylkill County for many years, and was appointed by the Auditor General's Office, Harrisburg, as the first Inheritance Tax Collector in the county, and was commended highly upon his efficiency in office. He likewise served as Mercantile Appraiser of the county for five years.

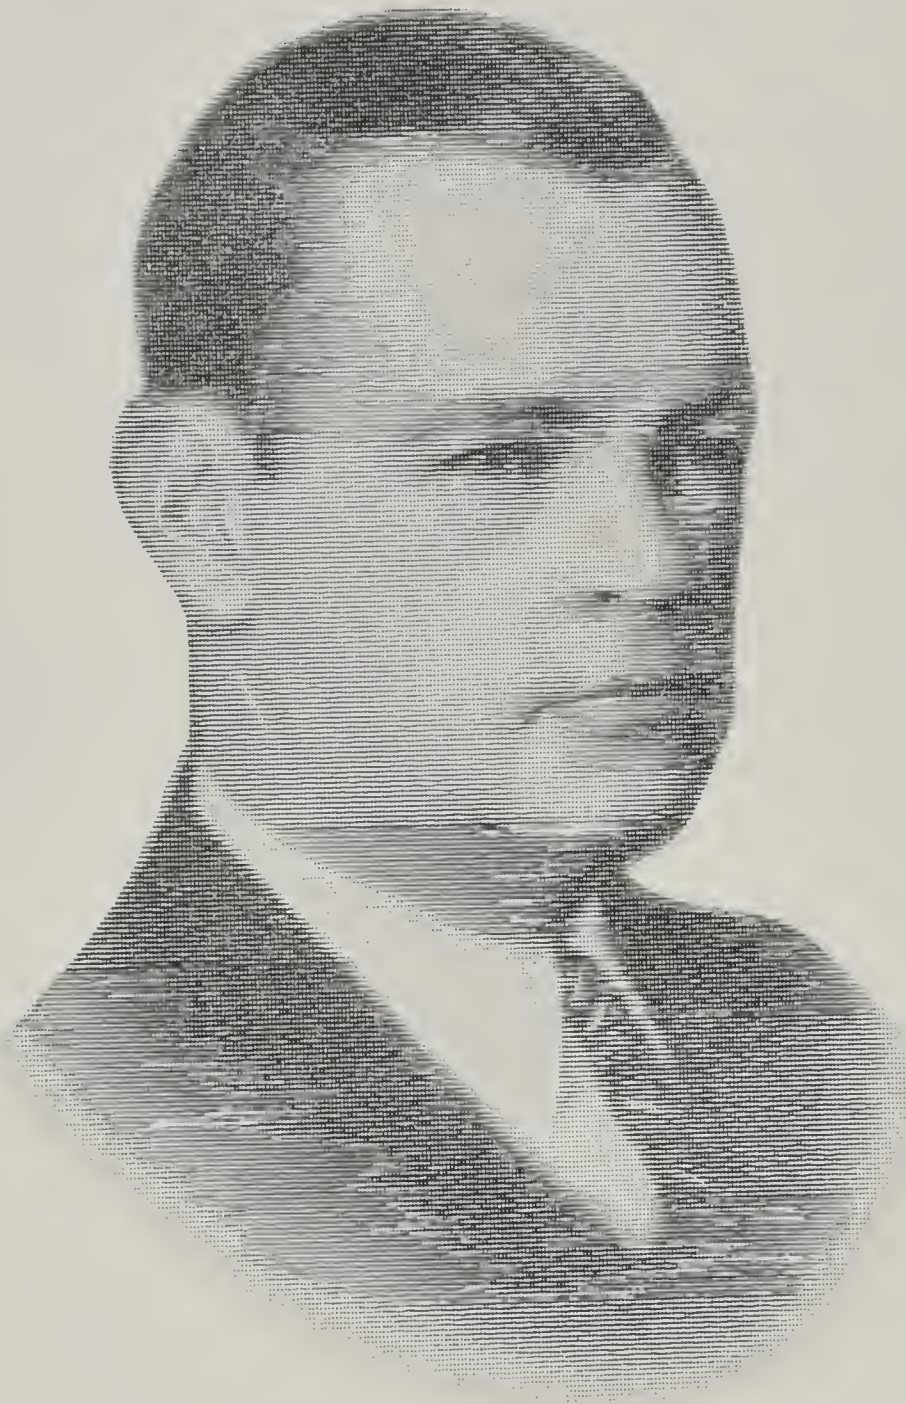

The family have been members of the Methodist Church since their residence in Pottsville, while fraternally, Mr. Clayton has been prominent in Masonic activities, the Elks, Royal Arcanum, P. O. S.

of A., Central Republican Club and West End Hose Co., of Pottsville.

His activity in the Republican ranks brought him closely in touch with the late Editor Joseph Henry Zerbey, and upon the demise of the latter, Mr. Clayton was found to be appointed as one of his executors of his estate, director in the Joseph Henry Zerbey Newspapers Inc., and trustee of the various trusts of Mr. Zerbey's interests and is continuing in that capacity.

It has been frequently remarked that Mr. Clayton is the soul of honor, once determining he was right, he stood by his convictions despite any opposition, proving that once a friend, he is sure to continue so.

He stands high in the counsels of the Republican party in State and County, and can always be depended upon to live up to his convictions.

SYDNEY A. LAZARUS

SYDNEY A. LAZARUS was born in Plainfield, N. J. on October 5, 1901. He is the son of the late Judge Hyman Lazarus and Mrs. Margaret Connelly Lazarus. Mr. Lazarus' maternal grandfather was Judge Patrick W. Connelly, who held various offices in the city of Bayonne for many years. His father, Judge Lazarus, also held various municipal offices, including that of Clerk of the Court under Judge Connelly. He successively served as Judge for fourteen years, Prosecutor of Hudson County, and Supreme Court Judge for four years. He was serving on the Supreme Court bench at the time of his death in 1924.

Mr. Lazarus attended the Bayonne, N. J. grammar and high schools. He later attended the Lawrenceville School in Lawrenceville, N. J., and the Newark Academy. He graduated from the latter institution in 1924. He subsequently studied journalism at Columbia University and advertising at New York University. While at school, he held various positions on the school publications, and was interested in literature.

Upon the death of his father in 1924, Sydney went into the newspaper business on the "Bayonne Times," which had been owned by the Lazarus family since 1911. He worked in the various departments of the paper, and in 1933 became associate publisher. At the death of his father-in-law, Joseph H. Zerbey, Mr. Lazarus became a director of the "Pottsville Republican," in which position he is still serving.

On September 8, 1930, he married Mildred Zerbey. Mr. and Mrs. Lazarus have one daughter, Margaretta Elizabeth. Margaretta, who is better known as Sally, was born on August 12, 1935. The family lives at 68 Forest Avenue, Glen Ridge, N. J.

Mr. Lazarus is a camera fan, a stamp collector, a golfer, and a music lover. He devotes a lot of his time to the civic welfare of his city. He is a member of the Industrial Relations Committee, Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis Club, Boy Scout Council, and the Civic Council. He also belongs to the Hudson County Press Club, the Glen Ridge Country Club, the Montclair Commonwealth Club, and the Schuylkill Country Club.

MRS. CATHERINE BANNAN
ZERBEY

CATHERINE BANNAN ZERBEY was born in Philadelphia, and, graduating from Philadelphia schools, took a special course at the Philadelphia School of Design. Having come to Pottsville to cheer up the two remaining great aunts, after the death of their sister, Mrs. Zerbey was present when the second aunt fell and died from the shock of the fall, and she continued to live with the remaining great aunt, Miss Martha Ridgeway Bannan, who occupied the residence known as "Cloud Home" on South

JOSEPH HENRY ZERBEY, 3rd

JOSEPH HENRY ZERBEY, 3rd, finishing high school in Pottsville, took a two years' course at the Augusta Military Academy at Ford Defiance, Va., and then entered Lafayette College. He spends every hour of his idle moments in training horses and engaging in all athletic sports. He is an ardent swimmer and a sail and speed boat manipulator; he is a football letter man and thoroughly enjoys playing basketball; he was on the baseball squad at Augusta Military Academy. His latest avocation is that of aviator, having, in 1937, tak-

Second Street. The Bannan family come from an illustrious line of Colonial ancestors, going back to 1632 thru the Earl, Walker and Savage families of early New England history, the Shinns and Ridgways of early Pennsylvania and New Jersey history; on her maternal side, Mrs. Zerbey comes from an equally long line of well known names in Southeastern Pennsylvania history, such as Boyer, Kuehn, Williams, Bunn, Reed, etc. She followed in the footsteps of a great-uncle, Benjamin Bannan, who established the Miners Journal as a daily newspaper in 1829, by becoming the President, in 1937, of the Daily Enterprise Company, which publishes a daily newspaper and does a general job printing business in the home of her Shinn and Ridgway ancestors at Burlington, New Jersey.

Mrs. Zerbey has taken an active part in various honorary hereditary societies, such as the National Society of the Daughters of 1812 and Daughters of the American Revolution, serving in various official capacities including regent of the local chapters of these two organizations and later in various State offices as well as acting in both of these for lengthy terms as National Chairman of the Press Relations Committee. She is also a member of the Daughters of Colonial Wars, Daughters of the American Colonists, Dames of Loyal Legion and Huguenot Society of Pennsylvania. She is a lover of golfing. She has served as President of the Mothers' Service Club of the Y. M. C. A., President of the Pottsville Garden Club, President of the Junior Auxiliary of what is now the Good Samaritan Hospital, and member of the Mothers' Assistance Fund under Governors Pinchot and Earle. With her husband and son, she is a member of the Trinity Episcopal Church of Pottsville, her son having the distinction of representing the longest continual family membership, being the sixth generation of his family to belong to this church.

Among the interesting genealogical sidelights in Mrs. Zerbey's family tree is the fact that the first deed recorded in official records of Schuylkill County represented transfer of property in Pottsville by an ancestor of Mrs. Zerbey's, while among her papers is the signature of Necho Allen, who discovered coal on Broad Mountain, as witness to family papers.

As Regent of the Daughters of 1812 Mrs. Zerbey was instrumental in starting the beautification of the highway along the roadside from Pottsville to Schuylkill Haven and in 1932 headed the movement which planted several hundred Memorial Trees many of which still contain the signatures of the co-operating public officials on specially prepared identification tags. This roadside planting has been much amplified of recent years thru State activities.

en sufficient preliminary training to secure his private's license. He owns a farm on Sweet Arrow Lake, near Pinegrove, Penna., and operates the Faraway Riding Academy, both of which activities enable him to give pleasure to his many friends.

He is secretary of the Enterprise Equipment and Realty Company, a newspaper property in Burlington, N. J.

ROBERT BRAUN

ROBERT BRAUN was born in Pottsville, Pa., graduated from the Pottsville High School and has figured in the city's most important musical events since he organized the Braun School of Music. following his graduation from the Pottsville schools, where he early earned the title of a musician of high degree, which will be found fully recorded in the Joseph Henry Zerbey History, from pages 2148 to 2170, in Volume V.

He was a pupil of his uncle, Fred-eric Gerhard, the latter becoming leader of the famous Third Brigade Band, N. G. P., and organizer and leader of the Pottsville Symphony Orchestra, in which Robert Braun became one of its most active members, and a pianist of note. Later he had the honor of conducting these same organizations.

He entered New York University and obtained the degree of Doctor of Music and other degrees of distinction the past year.

Mr. Braun wedded Frances Zerbey Braun on June 16, 1913, and following the wedding, they journeyed to Europe for advanced musical education to further the ideals and standards of the Braun School of Music of Pottsville.

GENERAL JOSHUA K. SIGFRIED

GENERAL JOSHUA K. SIGFRIED was born in Orwigsburg, July 14, 1832, and died July 20, 1896, in Pottsville. He was the son of Jonas Sigfried, a native of Pennsylvania, and a wheelwright by trade. His mother was Susan Krater, a native of Schuylkill County.

General Sigfried attended school between the ages of six and ten, and then began to earn his living working as a store boy for Messrs. Lyon and Rishel, in Port Clinton, remaining there five years. At the end of that time he entered the Pottsville Academy, but after a year he was compelled to go back to work. He secured employment in William H. Hetherington's store in Lykens. Two years later, Lewis Heilner became the owner of the store and young Sigfried remained with his new employer about a year. The succeeding year he was bookkeeper for Thomas H. Wintersteen, machinist. From that time until the Civil War he was employed as a coal shipper for Sillyman and Myers, Samuel Sillyman, and George H. Potts and Co., at Port Carbon, and for Lewis Audenried and Company, and George Potts and Company at Schuylkill Haven.

In April, 1851, he attached himself to the old Marion Rifle Company as a private. The following October, he was promoted to the first lieutenancy of the company and April 20, 1860, he was appointed major of the Third Regiment attached to the first brigade of the Sixth Division of Pennsylvania militia.

Francis B. Wallace, in his book "Patriotism of Schuylkill County" says about General Sigfried:

"General Sigfried entered the service in 1861 as Captain in the 6th Pennsylvania Regiment, Colonel Joseph Nagle, for a period of 3 months, at the expiration of which he was mustered out at Harrisburg. After his return home he assisted to organize the 48th Pennsylvania Regiment, of which he was commissioned Major, and mustered into the service on the first of October, 1861. He moved with the regiment to Hatteras on the 11th of November, 1861. He was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel by election on the 30th of that month In April he took command of the regiment, Colonel Nagle having been detailed to command the first Brigade, second division of what was afterward the 9th Corps He commanded the Regiment at the Battle of Fredericksburg, December 13, 1862. After the battle he was complimented by Generals Sturgess, Ferrero and Nagle for the manner in which he took the regiment into, and for the ability with which he handled it, while in action January 3, 1864, the 48th Regiment having re-enlisted for three years left its camp near Blaines' Cross Roads, Tennessee, for home on veteran leave, for re-organization. Arrived at Pottsville, February 3, having recruited its ranks to the maximum number, the regiment left Pottsville March 14, 1864, under command of Colonel Sigfried for Annapolis, where it was ordered to rendezvous At the explosion of the mine at Petersburg, Colonel Sigfried, with his Brigade, participated in the charge on the enemy's works. Subsequently, he was brevetted Brigadier-General by President Lincoln, for gallantry in this action. He continued in command of the Brigade, until mustered out of service, October 2, 1864 by reason of the expiration of term of service"

On March 10, he married Miss Elizabeth Sim.

ELIZABETH PENMAN SIGFRIED

ELIZABETH PENMAN SIGFRIED, wife of the late Joshua K. Sigfried, was born in Port Carbon in 1832. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Sim, who came to this country from Edinburgh, Scotland. Mrs. Sim's maiden name was Penman.

Mrs. Penman and her daughter, Mrs. Sim, came to this country after the death of Mr. Penman (Mrs. Sigfried's grandmother), because the sons who had been over here spoke so highly of the country.

Mrs. Sigfried's father died when she was six months old.

The Penmans came directly to Pottsville in 1820 and built a log house between Port Carbon and Pottsville on the Schuylkill River side of what is now known as the lower road and near what was then known as the Navigation Canal Landing near Mill Creek Junction. Later, the men of the Penman family had a coal works and built the York Farm mansion and were the operators of the then prosperous mining development operated later by the Lehigh Valley and which, of late years has been abandoned. Their home was on the north and east side of the bridge that crosses the trolley tracks at York Farm.

Mrs. Sigfried's uncle, James Penman, was a Port Carbon coal operator, and another uncle, Alexander Penman, had an early day coal operation at Silver Creek; the latter afterwards moved to Scranton where he was again active in coal mining. Several of his descendants also lived there: Miss Elizabeth Penman, Robert Penman and Major T. Frank Penman, Scranton attorney.

One of Mrs. Sigfried's aunts married a Thompson, and they had a son. Senator Alexander Thompson of Lykens. Mrs. Sigfried's uncle, Alexander Sim and her father had a coal works at what is now called Patterson.

Her father, David Sim, after amassing a fortune, retired and made his residence in Port Carbon, where he attended to the shipment and sale of coal. David Sim's brother, Andrew, died in New Orleans and after Alexander and David closed their coal operation, Alexander moved to Iowa.

Mrs. Sigfried's mother died in 1868. She attended private schools in Port Carbon and in Pottsville, and among her teachers was Miss Hannah Robertson, a Quakeress, afterwards the mother of Joseph A. Beir, a Port Carbon resident.

She became a member of the Methodist Church when she was ten, and when she was 18 years old walked to Bear Ridge to teach a class of married women who could neither read nor write.

She lived in Port Carbon until 1865, when the family came to Pottsville and resided near 8th and Mahantongo, where W. D. Pollard later resided; and afterwards at 6th and Mahantongo, Southwest corner. She was married to Joshua A. Sigfried in 1851, when neither was quite 19 years old. Her husband was in the store business in Lykens, but for a while she continued to live in Port Carbon until her husband opened a store there, and continued in charge of this until he became superintendent of the Potts' Coal Boat Landings, which position he held until he went into the army in 1861.

They had the following children: W. Elmer Sigfried, J. Reno Sigfried, Ida, Margaret, Carrie and Cora, wife of J. H. Zerbey, Sr., all deceased.

JAMES MONROE SCHROPE

JAMES MONROE SCHROPE, son of Simon C. and Harriet (Harner) Schrope, was born in Hegins Township, March 15, 1863. His paternal ancestor is Johannes Christoph Schrob, of Oberowis-18, 1727, who came to America during the Revolutionary War and settled in what is now Washington township, Schuylkill County. Johannes Schrob, born in 1784, great-grandfather of the subject of this sketch, acquired a large tract of land in Lower Mahantongo Township (Hegins Township) and was one of the pioneer settlers of the Hegins Valley.

James spent his boyhood days on his father's farm (now operated as the White Leghorn Poultry Farm of John Schrope and Sons) and attended the ungraded schools of East Hegins. The teachers of the western part of the county had teachers' "schools on Saturdays and during vacation to prepare themselves for the County Superintendent's examination and he was permitted to join them. In 1880 he was granted a teacher's provisional certificate by County Superintendent Jesse Newlin. With this certificate as a passport, he began his fifty-two years of service as teacher and superintendent by teaching one month of an unexpired term in Hegins Township, followed by a full term of an ungraded school of 60 pupils. In the spring of 1881, he entered the Central State Normal School at Lock Haven, Pa., and graduated in 1883.

In 1885 Mr. Schrope went to Erie and took a course in business and penmanship under Professors Spalding and Bennett, who were teaching in the then well-known Clark School of Business. On his return the Porter Township School Board, appreciative of the work Mr. Schrope had done in reorganizing the Muir school, and of the progressive spirit he displayed in taking courses to advance himself as an educator, selected him to perform the important duty of organizing a high school in Tower City, then a part of the township. This was a signal recognition and Mr. Schrope justified the confidence placed in him by organizing an efficient high school and serving for the next seven years as its supervising principal.

In 1892, the School Board of Delano Township desired to organize a high school. They selected Mr. Schrope because of his fine work in Porter Township. For the next fifteen years he served in the public schools of Delano as supervising principal and had one of the finest school organizations in Schuylkill County. In 1907 as a recognition of the fine work Mr. Schrope had done as an educator up to this time, he was chosen by the Pottsville School Board as principal of the Jackson Street Grammar School, succeeding Prof. Jesse Newlin, from whom he received his first certificate to teach.

In 1916 when the Legislature empowered the County Superintendent to name three assistants, the late Prof. Livingston Seltzer selected Prof. Schrope as his first assistant. For seventeen years, Prof. Schrope filled this position with distinction. He had charge of the various reports turned into the County Superintendent's office and was recognized by schoolmen as an authority on school finances. His ability in this important field of education received signal recognition when he was chosen by Dr. James N. Rule, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, as a member of a state-wide committee appointed to frame legislation dealing with the financing of the public schools of the State.

October 20, 1887, Mr. Schrope was married to Sybilla Wagner, daughter of Harrison and Hannah (Long) Wagner. He is a member of the Reformed Church and has taken an active interest in their educational work, especially among the young people. He was President of the County Christian Endeavor Union for a number of years and of the Schuylkill County Sabbath School Association from 1910 to 1914.

He was chairman of the committee that had charge of building the Friedens Evangelical and Reformed Church, at Hegins, Pa., in 1936-37; delegate of Deep Creek Charge of the Reformed Church to meetings of East Susquehanna Classis for the last eight years; delegate of the Classis to the General Synod at Akron, Ohio, in 1932; Cleveland, Ohio, 1934; and Fort Wayne, Indiana, 1936; and he has been elected as a delegate to the Columbus, Ohio, meeting in 1938.

The Joseph Henry Zerbey Newspapers Inc., takes this means of acknowledging most valuable services rendered by Mr. Schrope during the compilation of this history. When called upon at any time, he forsook his own duties to come to the aid of those in charge of the work. No duty was too strenuous, no hours too great, no distance too long for him to undertake, and being possessed of conscientious scruples, he painstakingly verified every detail. His picture of the incoming of settlers over mountain and dale in their trek in primeval forests into our county, is one that should have been preserved, but unfortunately, when he made this address before prominent educators of the county in an appeal for a County Pageant, none knew what verbal pictures he could present, and therefore not recorded, but will linger long in the memory of those who were present.

FINALE

FINAL

The following article was found among the papers of the late Editor Joseph Henry Zerbey, compiled and written by a special writer about 1906. We close the history with this biography.

—Author.

JOSEPH HENRY ZERBEY

JOSEPH HENRY ZERBEY, editor and proprietor of the "Pottsville Daily Republican" and "Weekly Schuylkill Republican," who, by his own personal efforts, and with the assistance of his two newspapers, has done much to build up his native town and county, was born here in Pottsville, Pa., June 15, 1858, the third one of the five sons of William Merkle Zerbey and his wife Sarah Louise.

The father, William Merkle Zerbey, was born in Orwigsburg, Schuylkill County, in 1824 and 20 years later removed to Pottsville, in which place he resided until his death in 1891. Father Zerbey was possessed of unusually lovable energetic characteristics and was noted for his strict integrity and perfect habits. He originally learned the trade of carpenter, but early in life engaged in the manufacture of window decorations, and for many years was one of Pottsville's prominent businessmen, being admired by all with whom he came in contact. Quiet and unostentatious, he refused political preferment a number of times, being content to act as an official of, first, the Evangelical, and then afterwards the Methodist Episcopal Church, and also of several financial institutions.

The mother, Mrs. Sarah Louise (Swalm) Zerbey, also a native of Orwigsburg, was born in 1832 and was still living in 1906.

The children born to William M. and Sarah L. Zerbey were: Ella, widow of Charles D. Elliott, for some years the associate editor of the "Daily Republican"; William, deceased; Adelia E., who married Frank A. Harper, an official of the P. & R. C. & I. Co., and after whose decease she married Horace S. Kirk, a foreman of the P. & R. car shops; John F., for years a bank cashier, next clerk to the county commissioners, and latterly national bank examiner; Heber S., formerly a tutor by profession and afterwards succeeding to the business of W. M. Zerbey & Son, window decorations, stationery, etc.; Robert A., for several years associate business manager of the "Daily Republican," who died in 1893; Frederick E., division superintendent Wilkes-Barre District, Lehigh Valley Coal Co.; and Sara Frances, wife of W. B. Hill, engaged in the manufacture of pianos, etc., in New York and Pottsville.

J. H. Zerbey, the subject of this sketch, was married June 16, 1880, to Cora E., daughter of Gen. Joshua K. Sigfried, of Pottsville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Zerbey reared a family of five children: Miss Frances, (Mrs. Robert Braun); Miss Edith, deceased; Joseph Henry, Jr., and two daughters, Mildred, (Mrs. Sydney Lazarus); and Elisabeth, (Mrs. Uzal H. Martz). The family home is located on Howard avenue at the corner of Fifteenth street.

Joseph H. Zerbey was educated in the excellent schools of Pottsville and graduated in 1875 from the High School before he was 17 years old, standing one of the highest in his class. Shortly thereafter he took up permanent work at his chosen vocation, in the office of the "Schuylkill Republican," then being published at Minersville, a suburb of Pottsville, thoroughly acquainting himself with all the duties of the various departments of the newspaper and publishing business, starting in as the latest apprentice, although he was urged to at once devote all his time to the business department, but he worked as a printer in the daytime and at night labored long hours at the business and reportorial work.

The "Schuylkill Republican," which in its prime was undoubtedly the most wide awake and best representative weekly newspaper ever printed in the Schuylkill coal region, was established December 14, 1872, by Charles D. Elliott and John O. Beck, at that time both well known practical printers, and actively engaged in the newspaper harness in the county seat. Realizing there was a first-class opening for a good up-to-date county newspaper representing the free, unbiased, untrammelled views of the people of the region, these veterans combined their energy and experiences, and on the above date began the publication of this old time splendidly popular newspaper at Minersville, four miles from Pottsville. With varying fortunes the two partners worked in harmony until June of 1874, when, as a result of failing health, Mr. Beck retired, and C. D. Elliott became the sole editor and proprietor, continuing at the business until September of 1879, when J. H. Zerbey, the subject of this sketch, who had been in charge of the Pottsville branch office from, and set type for, the first publication of the paper in 1872, and afterwards a regular employe of the concern, became a partner, and, a year later, in 1879, Mr. Zerbey acquired the sole ownership of the entire establishment from Mr. Elliott, who went West to engage in the newspaper business in his native State of Wisconsin.

For a weekly newspaper, without any daily paper affiliation, the "Schuylkill Republican" always maintained a widespread reputation as a fearless, outspoken exponent of the interests of the people, favoring anti-ring Republicanism, opposed to corporation and class domination, and at all times advocating the rights of the masses as against the usurpation of the classes.

From the inception of Mr. Zerbey's sole ownership and active editorship, new life was put into the publication in every department, as well as the latest machinery and appliances added to the equipment, and with this and the new energy thus directing its management the paper took on fresh impetus and soon was commanding such an extended influence in the coal region, and had such a large number of readers, that it was deemed best to move the publication office to Pottsville, which was done in April, 1884, the proprietor felicitating himself with the then considered splendid achievement at that time, of making the change without interference with the regular publication of the paper, the printing office apparatus being moved from the one town to the other and continuing its publication uninterruptedly without assistance from any other establishment.

In Pottsville the "Schuylkill Republican" was located in the Clay building, opposite the Academy of Music, within half a block of Centre St., on Mahantongo, almost exactly on the site of the first early day post office of the town, and which had been the scene of numerous newspaper failures, which fate was predicted for the "Schuylkill Republican" at that time by many people, even counting among these some of the paper's best friends; but there never was such a word as "Fail" in the makeup of Mr. Zerbey, proprietor of this newspaper establishment.

After a busy experience as a weekly paper, at the end of five months, without any preliminary preparations, it was suddenly decided by Mr. Zerbey on October 28, 1884, to start the publication of an every day except Sunday issue, and on that date the "Pottsville Daily Republican" was born. In size the new candidate for public favor was hardly larger than a window pane, but it was chuck full of news and original matter. From the start the paper at once jumped into public favor, and notwithstanding the field was supposed to be thoroughly occupied by the then well established daily papers, morning and evening, yet the newcomer made rapid strides on the road to afterwards great success, and at the end of two years was enlarged, receiving telegraphic dispatches and putting in new presses and type.

From 1884 to 1895 the "Daily Republican" continued in its original quarters, although it needed more elbow room and additional facilities as the business kept on constantly increasing, with the paper being enlarged from time to time.

On July 5, 1895, the entire plant with its afternoon and weekly publication business, together with a well organized job and book binding trade and all the extensive equipment necessary thereto, were moved to an old foundry building at the corner of Howard and Railroad streets without losing a single edition of the daily paper, the entire publication being continued with the office's own equipment, and the whole business going on uninterruptedly as if no heavy machinery or hundreds of tons of apparatus had to be moved.

While the paper was being published in these temporary quarters, work on a new building on the site of the old one, and the gathering in of the latest machinery and up-to-date appliances were pushed ahead.

On December 9, 1895, the handsome new four story specially constructed printing office building was declared completed, the old equipment was moved back, and then with the addition of the new machinery and other appliances, including linotype, stereotyping and perfecting press machinery that had already been put in place in the new home, the publication of the daily paper, at that time running five editions a day, was continued without interruption, notwithstanding the removal from the temporary to the new permanent building, several squares apart. For weeks after the new building was occupied in the midst of one of the bitterest winter seasons, heavy canvas had to be used to take the place of the regular basement front, which had been unavoidably delayed, and yet in spite of these and other mechanical difficulties the different editions of the paper were printed uninterruptedly.

From the occupancy of this new building and the addition of its splendid fresh equipment, the progress of the "Pottsville Daily Republican" was specially pleasing to its editor and proprietor, a wonderment to its friends, and the envy of its enemies.

Today the "Pottsville Republican" enters into nearly 18,000 homes within a radius of twenty miles of Pottsville, and it stands forth as one of the most successful newspaper ventures the interior of the State has ever witnessed, this result being the outcome of the tenacious determination and unceasing hard work of Joseph H. Zerbey, the editor and proprietor, since 1879 of the "Schuylkill Republican," weekly, and of the "Pottsville Daily Republican," founded by him in 1884.

In its time the "Pottsville Daily Republican" under Mr. Zerbey's able direction and careful editorship, has accomplished great work for the home community, and has always been found leading the vanguard in the battle for additional local industries, purification of home government, building up of the hard coal region and the elevation of the condition of the people generally.

Among the special results accomplished by Editor Zerbey and his "Daily Republican" were the inception of the movements that led to the present day extensive Tilt Silk Mill, and the numerous shirt and stocking factory industries; the affording of rival steam railway facilities for the lower Schuylkill coal field, whereby, through the "Republican's" advocacy, the Lehigh Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies built into Pottsville; the improvement of the telegraph and telephone facilities; the active encouragement and participation taken in the organization of the Steam Heat, the Anthracite and Edison Electric Light, and other local utility companies; the erection of the first private business building, the "Daily Republican" office, of fire-proof construction; the building of the electric railway in Pottsville, with Mr. Zerbey as the Secretary, his father-in-law, Gen. J. K. Sigfried, President, and his brother, John F. Zerbey, the Treasurer, which was the sixth organization of its kind to be started in the United States; the establishing of a Board of Trade, of which Mr. Zerbey has been the President for many years; the popularizing of the Pottsville Mutual Fire Insurance Co., a conservative institution that has done much for the town, and of which for nearly a score of years Mr. Zerbey has been President; besides he is a director in a number of public institutions and associations, a member of the Pottsville Club, and one of the active spirits in the Outdoor Club, with handsome quarters in the western limits of town; and also specially worthy of note is the very prominent part taken by Mr. Zerbey, and endorsed by his newspaper, in the construction of the magnificent $160,000 church edifice of the First Methodist Episcopal congregation, a structure which is undoubtedly the most imposing at this time of all the public institutions that have yet been erected here in Pottsville; Mr. Zerbey was chairman of the congregational meeting that decided to enter upon the construction of a new church, and also was a very active member of the Building Committee in charge of its construction, and chairman of the Finance Committee of the Board of Trustees.

These are some of the many splendid achievements which are drawn out of the laborious work of the editor and the important influence of his newspaper.

In political work, Mr. Zerbey with his newspaper, the "Republican" has been very influential and successful, always being ready to assist in curing the evils in the Republican party whenever they became too glaring. During his career the "Republican" has been very largely instrumental in revolutionizing the conducting of the county's business affairs, and for the eight years preceding 1906, formulated and made a success of the system whereby the county was given the best administration of the county commissioners office that it has ever had, resulting in numerous economies and a very heavy decrease in the county's debt and tax rate.

Several times in its history, the "Republican" has seen fit to assist in the defeat of unworthy party candidates, and one year by maintaining its own county organization, the "Republican" elected an entire reform legislative delegation whereby the local professional lobbyists were relegated to the rear never to get back their complete control of the party's machinery.

Before the publication of the "Daily Republican" was started it was a most unusual exception for a Republican nominee to be elected to any office in Schuylkill County, but as a result of the "Republican's" efforts to improve the administration of local affairs and the thorough support given its movements by the general public, the political complexion of the county has been reversed and Schuylkill placed among the regular Republican majority districts of the State.

Mr. Zerbey has always been a strong friend of the workingmen and has assisted quite materially in ameliorating their condition; he is a firm believer in the principles of the Republican party, and while taking an active part in politics has nevertheless always refused political preferment, declining all proffers of nomination and appointment to office, declaring his unswerving devotion to his newspaper work, considering that of sufficient honor and prominence, and wherein he may act at all times free and untrammelled for what he thinks will be for the best interests of his party and of the people generally. His unrelenting battles against public wrong and his plain outspoken utterances have made him at times bitter enemies, but he has never let these or any thoughts of personal comfort swerve him from doing what he considers is right. He is known as one always making his word good, and for his willingness to lead the forlorn hope in matters of public importance, by his tenacity of purpose, frequently turning impending disastrous defeat into splendid success.

One of the greatest campaigns for the benefit of the public was made by Mr. Zerbey in the famous Coal Tax disputes, his position being that county wealth was fast disappearing from beneath the surface, without adequate sums remaining in the county. Coal was shipped to all parts of the world, and all that remained here was the daily wage of the man who toiled beneath the soil, metropolitan cities were enabled to erect huge skyscrapers from the coal industry, and build up great educational institutions from the coal removed from our county. He strenuously fought for taxes that would aid our people, and if huge buildings were to be erected, they should be built here in the form of school houses and projects beneficial to our people.

In his profession Mr. Zerbey is very highly thought of, and has been frequently importuned to engage in newspaper ventures in some of the large cities.

For a quarter of a century he has been the resident correspondent for the coal region of the Associated Press and its affiliated organizations, besides acting as regular correspondent for such prominent metropolitan publications as the "New York Sun," New York "World," "Philadelphia Record," etc. At present he is President of the Schuylkill County Editorial Association, and when the newspapermen of the State inaugurated their movement for advertising and purchasing business co-operation Mr. Zerbey was made the president of the Publishers' Business League branch of the Penna. State Editorial Asso.; he is also a member of the Pen & Pencil Club with headquarters in Phila.

Mr. Zerbey has been a great traveler, always declaring that travel was the best means of educating one's self. He is an intense American, and the only secret society he ever acquiesced in joining was that of the Patriotic Order of Sons of America.

GRANDPARENTS

His grandfather, George Zerbey, (George Zerbe), was born on November 21, 1789, and died June 18, 1865.

His grandmother, Magdalena Merkle, was born September 28, 1796, and died July 22, 1871

POTTSVILLE REPUBLICAN—WEEKLY SCHUYLKILL REPUBLICAN

The "Pottsville Daily Republican" is the outgrowth of the Weekly "Schuylkill Republican!" the latter started at Minersville, December 14, 1872, by Charles D. Elliott and John O. Beck, both experienced newspaper men. In 1874 Mr. Beck retired, and from that time until 1878 Mr. Elliott conducted the paper as sole proprietor, and then he took into junior partnership with him his general business manager, J. H. Zerbey, who afterwards in 1879 bought out Mr. Elliott's interests and became sole editor and proprietor. The plant was removed to Pottsville in April of 1884, and in October of that year, the "Daily Republican" was started by Mr. Zerbey, the paper soon becoming very popular, a splendid success in every way, with the very large circulation for an inland daily, of 18,000 copies, and commanding a wide range of influence, excelled by no other publication in the interior of the State.

Charles D. Elliott was the Associate Editor of the "Pottsville Daily Republican" from 1886 until 1904 when a stroke of paralysis carried him to his grave, to the sorrow of a wide acquaintanceship and thoroughly appreciative newspaper public.

Robert A. Zerbey, brother of the editor, was the competent versatile assistant Business Manager of the "Pottsville Daily Republican," from 1886 to 1894, when he died suddenly.

From 1894 up to the present time Edmund L. Clifford has been the assistant Business Manager of the "Pottsville Daily Republican," and right ably has he filled that position, being an exceedingly painstaking worker, and a personally very popular gentleman.
